PART II
REGISTRATION OF FOOD BUSINESSES AND FEED BUSINESSES

Food businesses to be registered.

2. A person who operates a food business is guilty of an offence unless the following are registered in the food business register –

- (a) the person's name,
- (b) the nature of the food business, and
- (c) the name and address of the premises in or from which the food business is operated.

Feed businesses to be registered.

3. A person who operates a feed business is guilty of an offence unless the following are registered in the feed business register –

- (a) the person's name,
- (b) the nature of the feed business, and
- (c) the name and address of the premises in or from which the feed business is operated.

Applications for registration.

4. (1) Any person who operates or proposes to operate a food business may apply to the Guernsey Committee for registration in the food business register.

(2) Any person who operates or proposes to operate a feed business may apply to the Guernsey Committee for registration in the feed business register.

(3) Any registered person may apply to the Guernsey Committee to amend the registration of the person's food business or feed business.

(4) An application under subsection (1), (2) or (3) –

(a) must be in the form and manner, and include any information, required by the Guernsey Committee, and

(b) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(5) On receiving an application under subsection (1) or (2) made in accordance with subsection (4), the Guernsey Committee may register the food business or feed business by entering, in the relevant register–

(a) the name and address of the applicant,

(b) the nature of the food business or feed business, and

(c) the name and address of the premises in or from which the food business or feed business is operated.

(6) On receiving an application under subsection (3) made in accordance with subsection (4), the Guernsey Committee may amend the registration concerned by entering any relevant amendments in the relevant register.

- (7) The Guernsey Committee must not consider an application if–
  - (a) it does not include all the information sought by the Guernsey Committee, or
  - (b) it is not accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Grounds for refusal, variation, suspension or revocation of registration.

5. (1) The Guernsey Committee may refuse an application made under section 4 or vary, suspend or revoke a registration for any reason it considers appropriate.

(2) Without limiting the Guernsey Committee's discretion under subsection (1), the Guernsey Committee may refuse an application made under section 4, or vary, suspend or revoke a registration, if it is satisfied that –

- (a) any applicable Community provision or relevant Ordinance has not been, is not being or will not be, complied with,
- (b) the person concerned is under investigation for or has been convicted of an offence under the law of any country or territory, relating to food, feed, human health, animal health or the environment,
- (c) information required in relation to an application has not been furnished, or information that is false, deceptive or misleading in a material respect has been furnished in relation to an application,

- (d) the premises to which an application under section 4, or the registration, relates are not fit and proper premises to be registered,
- (e) the person concerned is not a fit and proper person to be registered,
- (f) a registered person has ceased to carry out the activity to which the registration relates on the premises to which the registration relates,
- (g) the person concerned, having been given 14 days to do so, fails to pay a fee payable under this Ordinance,
- (h) it is necessary for the protection of human health, animal health or the environment, or
- (i) it is necessary, ancillary or supplementary for any applicable Community provision to have full effect.

(3) For the purpose of determining whether or not there are any grounds for refusing an application made under section 4 or for varying, suspending or revoking a registration, the Guernsey Committee may at any time —

- (a) seek and receive any information from any person (whether in Alderney or elsewhere) as the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, and
- (b) take into account any information obtained from any source.

(4) A refusal, variation, suspension or revocation under this section must be made in accordance with section 6 or 7.

(5) In subsection (2) and sections 6 and 7, "the person concerned" means –

- (a) in the case of refusal of an application, the applicant, and
- (b) in the case of a variation, suspension or revocation, the registered person.

Fast-track refusal, variation, suspension or revocation.

6. (1) The Guernsey Committee may make a refusal, variation, suspension or revocation on a ground specified in section 5(2)(h) or (i) with effect immediately or from any time specified by the Guernsey Committee, by giving written notice to the person concerned.

(2) Following a refusal, variation, suspension or revocation in accordance with subsection (1), the Guernsey Committee must–

- (a) give the person concerned written notice –

(i) of the refusal, variation, suspension or revocation and the reasons for it,

(ii) stating that the person concerned may make representations in relation to the refusal, variation, suspension or revocation to the Guernsey Committee within 14 days of the notice, and

(b) consider any representation duly made by the person concerned.

(3) After considering any representations duly made by the person concerned, the Guernsey Committee may confirm, modify or annul the refusal, variation, suspension or revocation by giving the person concerned written notice –

(a) of the Guernsey Committee's decision and the reasons for it, and

(c) where the refusal, variation, suspension or revocation is confirmed or modified by the Guernsey Committee, stating that the person concerned may appeal the refusal, variation, suspension or revocation under section 58.

Standard procedure for refusal, variation, suspension or revocation.

7. (1) Where the Guernsey Committee proposes to make a refusal, variation, suspension or revocation on any ground other than a ground specified in section 5(2)(h) or (i), the Guernsey Committee must –

- (a) give the person concerned written notice –
  - (i) of the proposal and the reasons for it,
  - (ii) stating that the person concerned may make representations in relation to the proposal to the Guernsey Committee within 14 days of the notice, and
- (b) consider any representation duly made by the person concerned.

(2) After considering any representations duly made by the person concerned, the Guernsey Committee may decide whether or not to make a refusal, variation, suspension or revocation by giving the person concerned written notice –

- (a) of the Guernsey Committee's decision and the reasons for it, and
- (b) in the case of any refusal, variation, suspension or revocation, stating that the person concerned may appeal it under section 58.

Committee to maintain public register of food and feed businesses.

8. The Guernsey Committee must maintain and make available to the public, in a manner and form the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, a register for the purposes of –

- (a) article 6 of Regulation 852/2004, and
- (b) article 9 of Regulation 183/2005.

General duties of registered persons.

9. (1) A registered person must –

- (a) maintain any records required by section 38, in a legible form that can easily be copied or printed or in any other prescribed manner and form, for a period of three years,
- (b) on request by an authorised officer, produce for inspection any such records, and
- (c) make any prescribed information returns in the prescribed form and manner and at the prescribed times.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

PART III

APPROVAL OF FOOD BUSINESSES AND FEED BUSINESSES

Certain food and feed businesses to be approved.

10. (1) A person must not operate any premises as –
- (a) a food business to which article 4(2) of Regulation 853/2004 applies, except under and in accordance with a food business approval, or
  - (b) a feed business to which article 10 of Regulation 183/2005 applies, except under and in accordance with a feed business approval.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Exemption for producers engaged in direct supply to consumers.

11. (1) Subject to subsection (2), section 10(1)(a) does not apply to a producer engaged in the supply of primary products only to –
- (a) final consumers, or
  - (b) a food business operator located in Alderney that supplies the primary products only to final consumers.
- (2) The exemption in subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the supply of primary products where any of the final consumers mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) are located outside the Bailiwick, unless –

- (a) the producer meets the conditions specified in Schedule 2, and
- (b) in any case where subsection (1)(b) applies, the food business operator concerned is the operator of retail premises.

(3) Article 1(3)(c), (d) and (e) of Regulation 853/2004 has no effect to exempt a person operating a food business from section 10(1)(a) except as provided by subsections (1) and (2).

Applications for approval.

12. (1) Any person who operates or proposes to operate a food business or feed business may apply to the Guernsey Committee for a food business approval or feed business approval, respectively.

(2) Any holder of a food business approval or feed business approval may apply to the Guernsey Committee to amend the approval.

(3) An application under subsection (1) or (2) –

- (a) must be in the form and manner, and include any information, required by the Guernsey Committee, and
- (b) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(4) On receiving an application under subsection (1) made in accordance with subsection (3), the Guernsey Committee may, subject to any conditions specified by the Guernsey Committee –

- (a) grant a food business approval for the purposes of article 4 of Regulation 853/2004, or
- (b) grant a feed business approval for the purposes of article 10 of Regulation 183/2005.

(5) On receiving an application under subsection (2) made in accordance with subsection (3), the Guernsey Committee may amend the food business approval or feed business approval concerned by –

- (a) issuing an amended certificate of approval to the holder, and
- (b) entering any relevant amendments in the relevant register.

(6) The Guernsey Committee may, in exceptional circumstances, for good and sufficient reason make an approval valid for a limited period.

(7) The Guernsey Committee must not consider an application if–

- (a) it does not include all the information sought by the Guernsey Committee, or
- (b) it is not accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Certificates of approval.

13. Upon granting an approval, the Guernsey Committee must give a certificate to the holder of the approval ("certificate of approval") specifying–

- (a) the name of the holder of the approval,
- (b) the address of the premises to which the approval relates,
- (c) whether it is a food business approval or a feed business approval,
- (d) the nature of the activity to which the approval relates,
- (e) the conditions to which the approval is subject,
- (f) the period of validity (if any) of the approval,
- (g) a unique reference number that identifies the food business or feed business, and
- (h) the address of the Guernsey Committee.

Grounds for refusal, variation, suspension or revocation of approval.

14. (1) The Guernsey Committee may refuse an application made under section 12 or vary, suspend or revoke an approval, for any reason it considers appropriate.

(2) Without limiting the Guernsey Committee's discretion under subsection (1), the Guernsey Committee may refuse an application made under section 12, or vary, suspend or revoke an approval, if it is satisfied that –

- (a) any applicable Community provision or relevant Ordinance has not been, is not being or will not be complied with,
- (b) the person concerned has committed an offence under the law of any country or territory, whether that person has been convicted or not, relating to food, feed, human health, animal health or the environment,
- (c) the person concerned has failed to comply with a condition of the approval,
- (d) information required in relation to an application has not been furnished, or information that is false, deceptive or misleading in a material respect has been furnished in relation to an application,
- (e) the premises to which the application or approval relates is not a fit and proper premises to be approved,
- (f) the person concerned is not a fit and proper person to be approved,

- (g) the holder of the approval has ceased to carry out the activity to which that approval relates on the premises to which that approval relates,
- (h) the person concerned, having been given 28 days to do so, fails to pay a fee payable under this Ordinance,
- (i) it is necessary for the protection of human health, animal health or the environment, or
- (j) it is necessary, ancillary or supplementary for any applicable Community provision to have full effect.

(3) For the purpose of determining whether or not there are any grounds for refusing an application made under section 12 or varying, suspending or revoking an approval, the Guernsey Committee may at any time –

- (a) seek and receive any information from any person (whether in Alderney or elsewhere) as the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, and
- (b) take into account any information obtained from any source.

(4) A refusal, variation, suspension or revocation under this section must be made in accordance with section 6 or 7; but for the purposes of this subsection, the references in section 6(1) and 7(1) to a ground specified in section 5(2)(h) or (i) have effect as if they were references to a ground specified in section 14(2)(i) or (j).

Effect of suspension, revocation or expiry of approval.

15. (1) Upon suspension of an approval under this Ordinance, both the approval and the registration of the person and premises suspended have no effect for the duration of the suspension as notified to that person.

(2) Upon revocation of an approval under this Ordinance, or upon expiry of the approval, both the approval and the registration of the person and premises who or which was formerly approved has no effect.

Surrender of certificates.

16. (1) A holder of an approval must surrender to the Guernsey Committee the certificate of approval given to the holder within 14 days of any of the following –

- (a) expiry of the approval,
- (b) receiving written notice of suspension or revocation of the approval under this Ordinance,
- (c) receiving a written request from the Guernsey Committee to return the certificate for the purposes of amendment or variation, or
- (e) receiving an amended or varied certificate of approval from the Guernsey Committee.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(3) A holder of an approval may at any time surrender to the Guernsey Committee the certificate of approval given to the holder.

(4) Upon surrender of a certificate –

(a) the approval signified by the certificate (other than a certificate surrendered for the purposes of amendment or variation) ceases to have effect when the certificate is received by the registration authorised officer, but

(b) this Ordinance continues to apply, for the purpose of enabling the holder of the approval to be investigated or otherwise dealt with for a matter arising before the surrender, as if the certificate had not been surrendered.

(5) Upon the expiry of any period of suspension, the Guernsey Committee must return to the holder of the approval any certificate surrendered to the Guernsey Committee as a result of the suspension.

Committee to maintain public register of approved food or feed businesses.

17. The Guernsey Committee must maintain and make available to the public, in any manner and form the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate –

(a) a register of approved food businesses, and

(b) a register of approved feed businesses.

General duties of holders.

18. (1) A holder of an approval must –
- (a) comply with all conditions of the approval,
  - (b) maintain any records required as a condition of the approval, or required by section 38, in a legible form that can easily be copied or printed or in any other prescribed manner and form, for a period of three years,
  - (c) on request by an authorised officer, produce for inspection any such records,
  - (d) make any prescribed information returns in the prescribed form and manner and at the prescribed times, and
  - (e) during business hours, prominently display the certificate of approval on the premises to which the approval relates.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

PART IV

DUTIES RELATING TO FOOD, FEED AND RELATED OPERATIONS

Specific duties relating to feed

Undesirable substances in feedingstuffs.

19. (1) A person must not import, export, put into circulation, manufacture, incorporate in a feedingstuff, feed to an animal or have in the person's possession or under the person's control any feed unless —

(a) it is of sound merchantable quality, and

(b) if the feed is mentioned in column (2) of Annex I to Directive No. 2002/32/EC, the amount of an undesirable substance mentioned in column (1) of that Annex in relation to that feed does not exceed the level specified in column (3) in relation to that feed.

(2) A person must not, for dilution purposes, mix a feed that does not comply with subsection (1) with another feed or a further quantity of the same feed.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a complementary feedingstuff taking into account the proportion of the complementary feed prescribed for use in a daily ration.

(4) Annex I to Directive No. 2002/32/EC is to be construed and has effect as if each maximum level referred to in footnotes (1), (3) and (4) is prescribed as a maximum level for the relevant feed in Annex I, for the purposes of subsection (1)(b).

(5) A person must not have in the person's possession or the person's control, sell or supply an animal to which a feed has been administered in contravention of subsection (1).

(6) A person who imports, exports, puts into circulation, manufactures or incorporates in a feedingstuff any feed, must maintain a record of each transaction relating to the feed and feedingstuff, in a legible form that can easily be copied or printed or in any other prescribed manner and form, for eight years and make the record available on request to an authorised officer.

(7) A person who contravenes subsection (1), (2), (5) or (6) is guilty of an offence.

(8) Subject to section 89, any word or expression used in this section and also used in Directive No. 2002/32/EC has the same meaning as it has in the Directive.

Notice of feed importation.

20. (1) A person must not import any feed unless the person has given notice to the Guernsey Committee in the prescribed form and manner, at least 5 working days before the feed is imported, of —

- (a) the nature and quantity of the feed,
- (b) the place where it is intended to land the feed in Alderney,
- (c) the date and time that the feed is to be imported into Alderney, and the feed is imported into Alderney in accordance with the notice.

(2) A person who gives notice under subsection (1) must notify the Guernsey Committee in writing of any change of circumstances relating to the importation or proposed importation of the feed to which the notice relates –

(a) within 24 hours of becoming aware of the change, and

(b) at least 24 hours before the feed enters Alderney.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence.

Duties in relation or supplementary to Regulation 178/2002

Importation of food or feed.

21. (1) A person who imports food or feed in contravention of article 11 of Regulation 178/2002 is guilty of an offence.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, article 11 of Regulation 178/2002 has effect as modified by article 10 of Regulation 852/2004.

Unsafe food or feed.

22. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if the person –

(a) places unsafe food on the market in contravention of article 14 of Regulation 178/2002,

- (b) places unsafe feed on the market or feeds it to an animal in contravention of article 15 of Regulation 178/2002, or
  - (c) otherwise contravenes article 14 or 15 of Regulation 178/2002.
- (2) A person is guilty of an offence if the person –
- (a) uses any substance as an ingredient in the preparation of food,
  - (b) abstracts any constituent from food,
  - (c) subjects food to any other process or treatment, or
  - (d) does or omits any other thing, to make food unsafe, with intent that the food be sold for human consumption in that state.

Labelling, advertising and presentation.

23. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if the person –
- (a) contravenes article 16 of Regulation 178/2002 in relation to the labelling, advertising or presentation of food, or
  - (b) otherwise misleads consumers in contravention of article 16 of Regulation 178/2002.

(2) A person who sells to any person any food for human consumption which is not of the nature, substance, or quality of the food demanded by the latter person, to the prejudice or other disadvantage of that latter person, is guilty of an offence.

Requirements of food law and verification.

24. A food business operator or feed business operator is guilty of an offence if the operator, in contravention of article 17 of Regulation 178/2002–

- (a) fails to ensure that a food or feed satisfies the relevant requirements of food law,
- (b) fails to carry out the necessary verification, or
- (c) does or omits any other thing.

Identification, traceability and other information requirements.

25. (1) A food business operator or feed business operator is guilty of an offence if the operator, in contravention of article 18 of Regulation 178/2002 –

- (a) fails to identify a person from whom the operator has been supplied with food, feed, a food producing animal or a substance intended to be or expected to be incorporated into food or feed,
- (b) fails to have in place systems and procedures (including documentation) to allow information on provenance and destination of foods or feeds to be made available to the Guernsey Committee on demand,

- (c) fails to provide the Guernsey Committee with information on provenance or destination of a food or feed on demand,
- (d) fails to identify a person to whom a product marketed by the operator has been supplied,
- (e) fails to have in place systems and procedures to identify persons to whom products marketed by the operator have been supplied,
- (f) fails to adequately label or identify food or feed for the purposes of traceability through relevant documentation or information,
- (g) places food on the market, or
- (h) does or omits any other thing.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a food business operator or feed business operator is guilty of an offence if the operator fails –

- (a) to make available information in relation to food of non-animal origin, except sprouts and seeds intended for the production of sprouts, in accordance with

Schedule 3,

- (b) to keep information in relation to food of non-animal origin, except sprouts and seeds intended for the production of sprouts, for the duration specified in Schedule 3,

(2) The following persons are approved examiners for the purposes of this Ordinance and any other relevant Ordinance –

- (a) any person or class of persons approved by the States of Guernsey Policy & Resources Committee under the Guernsey Ordinance to engage in analysis and complete official certificates, and

(b) any other person or class of persons approved by the States of Guernsey Policy & Resources Committee to engage in analysis and complete official certificates for the purposes of this Ordinance and any other relevant Ordinance.

(3) A designation or approval under subsection (1) or (2) is subject to any conditions or limitations specified by the States of Guernsey Policy & Resources Committee by notice in writing published in any manner it considers fit.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt –

(a) a laboratory may be designated under subsection (1)(b) even if it is not located in Alderney,

(b) a person may be approved as an examiner under subsection (2)(b) even if the person –

(i) is not located in Alderney, or

(ii) is not engaging, and will not engage, in Alderney, in analysis for the purposes of a relevant Ordinance.

General powers of entry, search, etc.

41. (1) This section applies to premises ("searchable premises") if an authorised officer suspects that –

- (a) any risk good has been or may be present on those premises,
- (b) any risk good is or has been produced, manufactured, imported, processed, stored, transported, distributed, traded or otherwise dealt with on those premises,
- (c) a sample taken from a risk good is or has been processed, stored, analysed or otherwise dealt with on those premises,
- (d) those premises are registered or approved, are the subject of an application under section 4 or section 12, or are required to be registered or approved,
- (e) those premises are ancillary to premises that are registered or approved, subject to an application under section 4 or section 12, or required to be registered or approved,
- (f) any document relating to a risk good referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is, was or may be present on those premises, or

(g) an offence under a relevant Ordinance is being or has been committed on or in relation to those premises.

(2) Subject to section 43, an authorised officer may at any reasonable time, for any purpose specified in subsection (3), exercise any power specified in subsection (4) or (5) on or in relation to any searchable premises.

(3) Subsection (2) refers to the following purposes –

(a) establishing whether any conditions of a registration or an approval –

(i) are or have been breached, or

(ii) are or continue to be satisfied,

(b) establishing whether there are any grounds for the Guernsey Committee to exercise any of its powers under section 52 or 53,

(c) exercising or performing any of the Guernsey Committee's functions under a relevant Ordinance,

(d) establishing whether any offence under a relevant Ordinance is being or has been committed on or in relation to those premises,

- (e) detecting or investigating an alleged offence under a relevant Ordinance,
  - (f) seizing and securing anything which the authorised officer has reason to believe may be required as evidence in proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance,
  - (g) protection of human health, animal health or the environment, or
  - (h) giving full effect to any applicable Community provision.
- (4) Subsection (2) refers to the following powers –
- (a) with the assistance of a police officer, stop a person, vehicle, vessel or container,

  - (c) search the premises and examine, test or inspect anything at the premises, opening it (or breaking it open) as the authorised officer considers necessary or expedient,
  - (d) photograph, film or otherwise record anything at the premises,

- (e) measure or cause to be measured anything at the premises (including taking readings of values recorded by measuring instruments at those premises),
- (f) require the production of any equipment, facilities, vehicle, label used on food, packaging of food, any other materials used in the advertising or presentation of food, any document, or any other thing,
- (g) take copies of or extracts from any label used on food, any packaging of a food, any other materials used in the advertising or presentation of food, or any document (including, in the case of information in a non-legible form, a copy of or an extract from that information in a legible form),
- (h) if anything at the premises cannot be conveniently removed, secure it against interference,
- (i) purchase or take, without payment, samples of any risk good or any other thing and carry out or cause to be carried out on a sample such tests, analyses, examinations or inspections as the authorised officer considers necessary or expedient,
- (j) mark or otherwise identify any sample taken under subparagraph (i) or any risk good or other thing,
- (k) seize any risk good, equipment, facilities, vehicle,

document, or other thing, which is at the premises and detain it for as long as the authorised officer considers necessary,

(l) require any person to give the authorised officer any information, which may include (without limiting the generality of this paragraph) –

(i) information regarding the ownership, identity or origin of, or any other information regarding, any risk good,

(ii) any information regarding the premises, or

(iii) the name and address of any person, including a person to whom a risk good is being delivered or who is causing it to be delivered, and

(m) require any person to afford the authorised officer any other facilities or assistance that the authorised officer considers necessary or expedient, including in relation to any documents or other information provided to the authorised officer.

(5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (4), subsection (2) also refers to the following powers –

(a) inspect any records (in whatever form they are held) relating to a feed business or food business, and

- (b) where any such records are stored in electronic form –
- (i) inspect and check the operation of any computer or other electronic equipment or device and any associated apparatus or material which is or has been in use in connection with those records,
  - (ii) require any person having charge of, or otherwise concerned with the operation of, the equipment, device, apparatus or material to afford the authorised officer such assistance as the authorised officer may reasonably require, or
  - (iii) require the records to be produced in a form in which they may be taken away.

(6) Neither subsection (4) nor subsection (5) applies to, or in relation to, any items subject to legal professional privilege.

(7) Nothing in this section is to be construed as authorising any purchase or sale of drugs in contravention of the Misuse of Drugs (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1974<sup>4</sup> or any Ordinance or Order made under that Law or the Misuse of Drugs (Amendment) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2000<sup>5</sup>.

(8) The provisions of Schedule 7 have effect whenever an authorised officer purchases or takes without payment a sample of a food with the intention of having it analysed.

Safeguards for general powers of entry, search, etc.

42. (1) An authorised officer entering any premises under section 41 must, if the owner or occupier of those premises is present –

- (a) identify himself to the owner or occupier, and
- (b) produce to the owner or occupier documentary evidence that that authorised officer is an authorised officer.

(2) If the owner or occupier of those premises is not present at the

- (a) must leave the premises as effectively secured against trespassers as that authorised officer found them, and
- (b) must leave in a prominent place on those premises written notice that those premises have been entered and searched under section 41, including that authorised officer's name, an address at which that authorised officer may be contacted and a copy of the documentary evidence referred to in subsection (1)(b).

(3) An authorised officer who takes samples without payment, or seizes anything, under section 41(4) must leave with the owner or occupier of the premises (if present) or leave on the premises (if the owner or occupier is not present) a statement stating –

- (a) particulars of what has been taken or seized, and
- (b) that the authorised officer has taken or seized it.

Entry to dwellings restricted.

43. An authorised officer must not enter a dwelling under section 41, except –

- (a) with the consent of the owner or occupier of those premises, or

- (b) by giving the owner or occupier of those premises at least 24 hours' prior written notice of the entry, or
- (c) under and in accordance with a warrant issued under section 44.

Warrant to enter dwellings, etc.

Warrants for entry, etc.

44. (1) On application by an authorised officer in accordance with section 45, the Chairman of the Court may, in accordance with sections 45 and 46, issue a warrant authorising an authorised officer to enter and search any premises (including a dwelling), if the Chairman of the Court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing –

- (a) that an offence under a relevant Ordinance is about to be committed, is being committed or has been committed on or in relation to those premises,
- (b) that there is material on those premises which is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation of the offence,
- (c) that the material is likely to be relevant evidence,
- (d) that the material does not consist of or include items subject to legal professional privilege, and

(e) that at least one of the conditions specified in subsection (2) is satisfied.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(e) are –

(a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises,

(b) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the evidence,

(c) that entry to the premises will not be granted unless a warrant is produced, or

(d) that the purpose of a search may be frustrated or seriously prejudiced unless an authorised officer arriving at the premises can secure immediate entry to them.

(3) In this section, "relevant evidence", in relation to an offence, means anything that would be admissible in evidence at a trial for the offence.

Procedure for search warrants.

45. (1) An application for a warrant –

(a) must be made and supported by information in writing, and

(b) must state –

- (i) that the warrant would be issued under section 44,
- (ii) the ground on which the authorised officer makes the application,
- (iii) the premises which it is desired to enter and search, and
- (iv) so far as is practicable, the things to be sought.

(2) The Chairman of the Court must hear the application in private and ex parte.

(3) The authorised officer making the application must answer on oath any question that that authorised officer is asked by the person hearing the application.

Requirements of search warrants.

46. (1) A warrant authorises entry only on one occasion.
- (2) A warrant –
- (a) must state the person who applied for it, the date on which it is issued, and the premises to be searched,
  - (b) must state that it is issued under section 44, and

(c) so far as is practicable, must identify the things to be sought.

(3) The Greffier must ensure that two copies are made of each warrant, and that those copies are clearly certified as copies.

Execution of warrants.

47. (1) Any authorised officer may execute a warrant to enter premises.

(2) An authorised officer executing a warrant may exercise any power specified in section 41(4) or (5) on or in relation to those premises (subject to section 41(6), (7) and (8)), if the authorised officer considers it reasonably necessary for the purpose for which the warrant was issued.

(3) An authorised officer executing a warrant –

(a) must be accompanied by a police officer,

(b) must do so at a reasonable hour, and

(c) must do so within one month from the date of its issue.

(4) Subsection (3)(b) does not apply if it appears to the authorised officer executing the warrant that the purpose of the search may be frustrated by making an entry at a reasonable hour.

Safeguards for warranted entry, search, etc.

48. (1) An authorised officer executing a warrant to enter any premises under section 47 must, if the owner or occupier of those premises is present –

- (a) identify himself to the owner or occupier, and
- (b) produce the warrant to the owner or occupier.

(2) If the owner or occupier is not present at the time the authorised officer leaves those premises, the authorised officer –

- (a) must leave the premises as effectively secured against trespassers as that authorised officer found them, and
- (b) must leave in a prominent place on those premises written notice that those premises have been entered and searched under section 47, including that authorised officer's name and an address at which that authorised officer may be contacted and a copy of the warrant.

(3) An authorised officer who takes any samples or seizes anything under section 47(2) must leave with the owner or occupier of the premises (if present) or leave on the premises (if the owner or occupier is not present), a statement stating –

- (a) particulars of what has been taken or seized, and
- (b) that the authorised officer has taken or seized it.

Endorsement, return and inspection of warrants.

49. (1) An authorised officer executing a warrant must, after executing it, make an endorsement on it stating –

(a) whether the things sought were found, and

(b) whether any things, other than things which were sought, were seized.

(2) A warrant which has been executed, or which has not been executed within the time allowed for its execution, must be returned to the Greffier.

(3) The Greffier must retain a warrant which is returned for 12 months beginning on the date of its return.

(4) If, during the period for which a warrant is to be retained under subsection (3), the owner or occupier of the premises to which it relates asks to inspect it, the Greffier must allow that owner or occupier to do so.

Miscellaneous powers

Persons exercising powers may bring other persons and things.

50. (1) An authorised officer entering any premises under section 41 or 47 may bring onto the premises any person, equipment, material or other thing to assist the authorised officer in the exercise of that authorised officer's powers under this Ordinance.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, any person brought onto the premises by an authorised officer under subsection (1) may exercise any of the powers of an authorised officer under this Ordinance under the direction and supervision of an authorised officer.

Detention, storage and disposal of seized property.

51. (1) All seized property must be detained, stored and disposed of by the Guernsey Committee in accordance with Schedule 8.

(2) Subject to subsection (3)(b) and any order of a competent court to the contrary, any proceeds of a sale or disposal of seized property under this Ordinance must be paid to the owner of the property as soon as practicable after the person has satisfied the Guernsey Committee that that person is the owner of that property.

(3) The costs and expenses of any sale or disposal of seized property under this Ordinance may be recovered by the Guernsey Committee–

- (a) as a civil debt owed to the Guernsey Committee by the owner of the property, or
- (b) by deducting the costs from any sum due by the Guernsey Committee to the owner.

Powers of the Guernsey Committee

Compliance notices.

52. (1) The Guernsey Committee may give to a relevant person a written notice ("compliance notice") in the prescribed form imposing any or all of the requirements specified in subsection (2) if the Guernsey Committee has reasonable grounds to believe that –

- (a) any food or feed fails to comply with any of the relevant provisions of Regulation 178/2002,
  - (b) any applicable Community provision or relevant Ordinance has not been, is not being or will not be complied with,
  - (c) any food or feed is unsafe, whether or not it conforms with applicable Community provisions or any applicable provisions of a relevant Ordinance,
  - (d) the requirement is necessary, ancillary or supplementary to give full effect to any applicable Community provision or relevant Ordinance, or
  - (e) the requirement is necessary for the protection of human health, animal health or the environment.
- (2) Subsection (1) refers to a requirement that –
- (a) any specified food or feed must be withdrawn from the market,
  - (b) any specified risk good must be moved or relocated to or stored in a specified place in a specified manner, or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in a specified manner,

- (c) a specified alteration must be made to specified premises or to specified operations at those premises,
  - (d) a specified type or level of sampling and analysis must be undertaken for a specified period,
  - (e) a specified measure within the meaning of article 54(2) of Regulation 882/2004 must be taken in a specified manner,
  - (f) a specified operation or activity may be carried out on specified premises only under and in accordance with specified terms and conditions,
  - (g) any specified process, treatment or equipment must or must not be used for the purposes of a specified operation or activity, or
  - (h) any specified process, treatment or equipment may be used for the purposes of a specified operation or activity only under and in accordance with specified terms and conditions.
- (3) A compliance notice must state –
- (a) the Guernsey Committee's opinion in relation to the relevant matter in subsection 1(a) to (e) forming the basis of the notice,

- (b) the requirements that must be complied with,
  - (c) a time limit within which any requirement in the notice must be complied with,
  - (d) that the notice is given under section 52, and
  - (e) that an appeal against the notice may be made under section 59.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, a compliance notice –
- (a) may require prompt or immediate compliance with any requirement specified in the notice,
  - (b) may include requirements and conditions prohibiting, restricting or otherwise controlling the use, processing or movement of specified risk goods,
  - (c) may require the person to whom the notice is given to choose between one or more requirements specified in that notice, and
  - (d) may at any time be amended or withdrawn by a further notice in writing given under this section, in which case the earlier compliance notice has effect subject to any such amendment or withdrawal.

- (5) A compliance notice has effect subject to –
- (a) any temporary suspension or modification of the effect of the notice under section 59(6),
  - (b) any modifications made to the notice under section 59(7)(a), or
  - (c) annulment or repudiation of the notice under section 59(7)(b).

(6) A person to whom a compliance notice is given must comply with the notice.

(7) A person who contravenes subsection (6) is guilty of an offence.

(8) For the avoidance of doubt, the costs of any action required by a compliance notice must be borne by the person to whom the notice is given.

(9) In this section and section 53 –

"relevant person" means any of the following –

- (a) a feed business operator,
- (b) a food business operator,
- (c) the owner or occupier of any premises at which a feed business or food business is carried out, or

- (d) the owner of any risk good, and

"specified", in the case of this section, means specified in the compliance notice; and in the case of section 53, means specified in the emergency notice.

Emergency notices.

53. (1) If the Guernsey Committee has reasonable grounds to believe that the condition in either subsection (2) or (3) is satisfied, the Guernsey Committee may take any or all of the actions specified in subsection (4) by issuing to a relevant person a written notice ("emergency notice") in the prescribed form.

- (2) The condition in this subsection is that –

- (a) the relevant person has failed to comply with a requirement in a compliance notice given to the person within the time specified for compliance in the compliance notice,

- (b) either –

- (i) no appeal has been made against the compliance notice within the appeal period specified in section 59(3), or

- (ii) an appeal has been made within the appeal period and the Court of Alderney has confirmed the relevant requirement in the compliance notice, and

- (c) the actions proposed to be taken by the Guernsey Committee are necessary for the protection of human health, animal health or the environment.

(3) The condition in this subsection is that it is necessary for the Guernsey Committee to take the actions proposed to be taken to avoid imminent risk of injury to human health.

(4) The Guernsey Committee may take the following actions in accordance with subsection (1) –

- (a) seize and detain any risk good (unless it is already in the custody of an authorised officer or the Guernsey Committee),
- (b) deal with and dispose of any risk good in any manner the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, and
- (c) prohibit specified premises from being used for the purposes of any operation or activity.

(5) An emergency notice must specify –

- (a) the Guernsey Committee's opinion in relation to the relevant matter in subsection (2) or (3) forming the basis of the notice,

- (b) the actions taken by the Guernsey Committee (including, in the case of an emergency prohibition notice, what is being prohibited),
- (c) that those actions are being taken under section 53, and
- (d) that an appeal against the notice may be made under section 59.

(6) An emergency notice has effect subject to –

- (a) any temporary suspension or modification of the effect of the notice under section 59(6),
- (b) any modifications made to the notice under section 59(7)(a), or
- (c) annulment or repudiation of the notice under section 59(7)(b).

(7) The Guernsey Committee may recover the costs and expenses of taking any action under subsection (4)(a) and (b) as a civil debt owed to the Guernsey Committee by the relevant person to whom the notice is given.

(8) For the avoidance of doubt, the Guernsey Committee may amend or withdraw an emergency notice.

Special provisions for emergency prohibition notices.

54. (1) In this section, "emergency prohibition notice" means an emergency notice containing a prohibition under section 53(4)(c).

(2) A person to whom an emergency prohibition notice is given must comply with the notice.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) is guilty of an offence.

(4) Where an emergency prohibition notice is given, the Guernsey Committee must affix a copy of the notice in a conspicuous position in the premises to which the notice relates.

(5) Any person (other than a person to whom the notice is given) who knowingly or recklessly contravenes a prohibition in the notice is guilty of an offence.

Orders of the Court of Alderney

Court orders relating to seized property or withdrawn food or feed.

55. (1) This section applies to any property that is –

(a) seized property, or

(b) food or feed withdrawn from the market in order to comply with a requirement in a compliance notice.

(2) The Guernsey Committee or the owner of any property to which this section applies may make an application to the Court of Alderney ("primary application") for –

- (a) an order for the delivery of the property to its owner,
  - (b) an order for the seizure and detention, or continued detention, of the property by the Guernsey Committee,
  - (c) an order to dispose of the property in a manner specified by the court, or
  - (d) any other order that the court thinks fit in relation to the property.
- (3) A primary application must be made by a summons –
- (a) stating the order sought and the grounds and material facts on which the applicant relies, and
  - (b) served in accordance with subsection (4) at least 14 days before the application is heard by the court.
- (4) The summons must be served –
- (a) where the applicant is the Guernsey Committee, on the owner of the property, and
  - (b) where the applicant is the owner of the property, on the Guernsey Committee.

(5) The respondent of a primary application may apply to the court, by summons served on the applicant, for an order to dismiss the primary application for want of prosecution; and on hearing an application under this subsection ("secondary application") the court may –

- (a) dismiss the primary application or the secondary application (in either case on such terms and conditions as the court may direct), or
- (b) make any order that the court considers just.

(6) Despite subsections (3) and (4)(a), if the Guernsey Committee is unable to identify the owner of the property after making reasonable enquiries, the Guernsey Committee may make a primary application ex parte and directly to the court.

(7) The court may hear and determine a primary application; and where an ex parte application is made under subsection (6) the court may hear and determine the application ex parte.

(8) On hearing and determining a primary application, the court may make any order of a kind specified in subsection (2)(a) to (d).

(9) Without limiting the court's powers under subsection (8), the court may make an order under that subsection directing that any food or feed the subject of a primary application be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by an authorised officer within the time specified in the order, if the court is satisfied that–

- (a) the food or feed fails to comply with any of the relevant provision of Regulation 178/2002, or
- (b) the food or feed is unsafe, whether or not it conforms with applicable Community provisions or any applicable provisions of a relevant Ordinance, or
- (c) a food business operator or feed business operator has failed to take measures in respect of the food or feed which the operator ought to have taken under article 19 or 20 of Regulation 178/2002.

(10) An order under this section has effect despite any provision to the contrary in Schedule 8.

(11) For the avoidance of doubt, an application under this section is to be regarded as a civil matter in which the court has jurisdiction, for the purposes of the Government of Alderney Law, 2004.

Emergency prohibition orders.

56. (1) The Guernsey Committee may apply to the Court of Alderney for an order under this section ("emergency prohibition order") to prohibit any premises from being used for the purposes of any operation or activity specified in the order.

(2) An application under subsection (1) must be made by a summons –

- (a) stating the order sought and the grounds and material facts on which the Guernsey Committee relies, and
- (b) served on the owner or occupier of the premises at least 24 hours before the application is heard by the court.

(3) Despite subsection (2), if the Guernsey Committee is unable to identify the owner or occupier of the premises after making reasonable enquiries, the Guernsey Committee may make an application under subsection (1) ex parte and directly to the court.

(4) The court may hear and determine an application made under subsection (1); and where an ex parte application is made under subsection (3) the court may hear and determine the application ex parte.

(5) On hearing and determining an application under this section, the court may make an emergency prohibition order in relation to the premises if the court is of the opinion that the condition in either subsection (6) or (7) is satisfied.

(6) The condition in this subsection is that –

- (a) the owner or occupier of the premises has failed to comply with a requirement in a compliance notice given to that owner or occupier within the time specified for compliance in the compliance notice,
- (b) either –

- (i) no appeal has been made against the compliance notice within the appeal period specified in section 59(3), or
- (ii) an appeal has been made within the appeal period and the Court of Alderney has confirmed the relevant requirement in the compliance notice, and
- (c) the emergency prohibition order is necessary for the protection of human health, animal health or the environment.

(7) The condition in this subsection is that the emergency prohibition order is necessary to avoid imminent risk of injury to human health.

(8) If the court makes an emergency prohibition order in relation to any premises under this section, the Guernsey Committee must –

- (a) serve a copy of the order on the owner or occupier of those premises, if known to the Guernsey Committee, and
- (b) affix a copy of the order in a conspicuous position on those premises.

(9) Any person on whom a copy of the order is served must comply with the order.

(10) A person who contravenes subsection (9) is guilty of an offence.

(11) Any person (other than a person served with a copy of the order) who knowingly or recklessly contravenes a prohibition in an emergency prohibition order is guilty of an offence.

(12) Nothing in subsection (10) or (11) limits the effect of a court order made under this section.

(13) For the avoidance of doubt, an application under this section is to be regarded as a civil matter in which the court has jurisdiction, for the purposes of the Government of Alderney Law, 2004.

General provision

Other powers not limited.

57. For the avoidance of doubt, the powers conferred by any provision of this Part are in addition to any other powers conferred by or under any other enactment or any rule of customary or common law.

PART VI
APPEALS

Appeals against registration or approval decisions.

58. (1) This section applies to a decision of the Guernsey Committee–

- (a) to refuse an application for registration, or to vary, suspend or revoke a registration, in accordance with section 6 or 7, or
- (b) to refuse an application for approval, or to vary, suspend or revoke a registration, in accordance with section 6 or 7 as given effect by section 14(4).

(2) A person given written notice of a decision to which this section applies may appeal the decision to the Court of Alderney in accordance with this section.

(3) The grounds of an appeal are that –

- (a) the decision was ultra vires or there was some other error of law,
- (b) the decision was unreasonable, having regard to any applicable Community provision and any other relevant matter,
- (c) the decision was made in bad faith,
- (d) there was a lack of proportionality, or
- (e) there was a material error as to the facts or as to the procedure.

(4) An appeal must be made –

- (a) within the period of 28 days immediately following the date on which the notice of the decision was received by the appellant, and
- (b) by summons served on the Guernsey Committee stating the grounds and material facts on which the appellant relies.

(5) Where an appeal has been made, the Guernsey Committee may apply to the Court of Alderney by summons served on the appellant, for an order to dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution; and on hearing the application the court may–

- (a) dismiss the appeal or dismiss the application (in either case on such terms and conditions as the court may direct), or
- (b) make such other order as the court considers just.

(6) The provisions of subsection (5) are without prejudice to the inherent powers or the rules of the Court of Alderney.

(7) On the application of the appellant, the court may, on such terms as the court thinks just, suspend or modify the effect of the decision appealed pending the determination of the appeal.

(8) Upon determining an appeal, the court may –

- (a) confirm the decision, with or without modification, or
- (b) annul the decision.

Appeals against disposal, compliance or emergency notices.

59. (1) A person to whom a disposal notice, compliance notice or emergency notice is given may appeal the notice to the Court of Alderney under this section, even if –

- (a) the person has complied with any requirement or prohibition in the notice, or
  - (b) any action notified in the notice has been taken and completed.
- (2) The grounds of an appeal are that –
- (a) all or any part of the notice was ultra vires or there was some other error of law,
  - (b) all or any part of the notice was unreasonable, having regard to Regulation 178/2002, Regulation 852/2004, Regulation 853/2004, Regulation 854/2004, Regulation 882/2004, Regulation 183/2005, Directive No. 2002/32/EC and any other relevant matter,
  - (c) the notice was given in bad faith,
  - (d) there was a lack of proportionality, or

(e) there was a material error as to the facts or as to the procedure.

(3) An appeal must be made –

(a) within the period of 28 days immediately following the date on which the notice was received by the appellant, and

(b) by summons served on the Guernsey Committee stating the grounds and material facts on which the appellant relies.

(4) Where an appeal has been made, the Guernsey Committee may apply to the Court of Alderney by summons served on the appellant, for an order to dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution; and on hearing the application the court may–

(a) dismiss the appeal or dismiss the application (in either case on such terms and conditions as the court may direct), or

(b) make such other order as the court considers just.

(5) The provisions of subsection (4) are without prejudice to the inherent powers or rules of the Court of Alderney.

(6) On the application of the appellant, the court may, on such terms as the court thinks just, suspend or modify the effect of the notice appealed pending the determination of the appeal.

- (7) Upon determining an appeal, the court may –
  - (a) confirm the notice, with or without modification, or
  - (b) annul or repudiate the notice.

(8) If the court modifies, annuls or repudiates a notice under subsection (7), the court may, on the application of the appellant, order the Guernsey Committee to compensate the appellant for any loss suffered by the appellant as a result of any actions notified in the notice or as a result of complying with the notice (other than the costs of the appeal), if the court considers it necessary to do so in the interests of fairness and justice.

(9) The compensation payable under subsection (8) to any one person, or in respect of any one notice, must not exceed the sum of £1,000,000 (one million pounds) in aggregate.

(10) The provisions of subsection (8) are without prejudice to any rules of the court concerning costs.

(11) In this section, unless the context requires otherwise "the notice" includes any requirement in a notice and any action notified in the notice.

PART VII REGULATIONS

Saving of power to make regulations as to composition of food, etc.

60. Despite the repeal of the former Law and other enactments by the Guernsey Ordinance, section 4 of the former Law (except subsection (4) and the proviso at the end of that subsection), as applied to Alderney subject to modifications<sup>6</sup> and in force immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance, has effect as if it were a provision of this Ordinance, subject to the following modifications –

- (a) a reference to the Island in that section is to be regarded as a reference to Alderney,
- (b) a reference to order or any order is to be regarded as a reference to regulation or any regulation, respectively, and
- (c) a reference to any Community obligation in that section is to be regarded as a reference to any applicable Community provision.

Saving of power to make regulations as to labelling and description of food.

61. Despite the repeal of the former Law and other enactments by the European Communities (Food and Feed Controls) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2016<sup>7</sup>, section 7 of the former Law, as applied to Alderney subject to modifications and in force immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance, has effect as if it were a provision of this Ordinance, subject to the following modifications –

- (a) in subsection (1) of that section, delete "Without prejudice to the provisions of the last foregoing section," and
- (b) a reference to order or any order is to be regarded as a reference to regulation or any regulation, respectively.

Saving of power to make regulations as to food hygiene.

62. Despite the repeal of the former Law and other enactments by the European Communities (Food and Feed Controls) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2016, section 13 of the former Law, as applied to Alderney subject to modifications and in force immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance, has effect as if it were a provision of this Ordinance, subject to the following modifications –

- (a) in subsection (2) of that section, delete paragraph (f),
- (b) in subsection (2)(h) of that section, for "food unfit for human consumption", substitute "unsafe food",
- (c) delete subsections (4) to (6) of that section, and
- (d) a reference to order or any order in that section is to be regarded as a reference to regulation or any regulation, respectively.

Saving of power to make regulations to implement applicable Community provisions.

63. (1) Despite the repeal of the former Law and other enactments by the European Communities (Food and Feed Controls) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2016, section 47A of the former Law, as applied to Alderney subject to modifications and in force immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance, continues to have effect in Alderney as if it were a provision of this Ordinance, subject to the following modifications –

- (a) delete subsection (3) of that section,
- (b) a reference to the former Law in that section is to be regarded as a reference to this Ordinance,
- (c) a reference to order or any order in that section is to be regarded as a reference to regulation or any regulation, respectively, and
- (d) a reference to any Community obligation in that section is to be regarded as a reference to any applicable Community provision.

(2) Without limiting the generality of section 47A of the former Law as continued in effect by subsection (1) of this section, the Guernsey Committee may make regulations to put in place interim protective measures with regard to food of the kind provided for by article 54 of Regulation 178/2002.

(3) In exercising its powers under subsection (2), the Guernsey Committee must take into account the precautionary principle set out in article 7 of Regulation 178/2002.

Emergency control regulations.

64. (1) If it appears to the Guernsey Committee that the carrying out or omission of any operation or activity with respect to food, feed or other risk good involves or may involve imminent risk of injury to human health, the Guernsey Committee may make regulations ("emergency control regulations") to prohibit, regulate or require the carrying out of the operation or activity with respect to the food, feed or other risk good.

(2) The Guernsey Committee may consent, either unconditionally or subject to any condition that the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, to the doing in a particular case of anything prohibited by an emergency control regulation.

(3) A person who contravenes any emergency control regulation is guilty of an offence.

(4) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (3), it is a defence for the defendant to prove –

- (a) that consent had been given under subsection (2) to the contravention of the emergency control regulation, and
- (b) that any condition subject to which that consent was given was complied with.

(5) If, as a result of a person contravening any emergency control regulation, the Guernsey Committee determines on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to carry out any work or do anything else in order to avoid imminent risk of injury to human health, the Guernsey Committee may recover from the person any expenses reasonably incurred by the Guernsey Committee as a civil debt owed to the Guernsey Committee by that person.

(6) Any regulations made under this section expires on the date that is 4 calendar months following the date on which the regulations come into force, unless extended (for up to 4 calendar months at a time) by a resolution of the States of Alderney.

Regulations may provide for appeals and create offences.

65. (1) Regulations made under this Ordinance may provide for an appeal to the Court of Alderney against any decision of an authorised officer, the Guernsey Committee or any other person.

(2) Regulations made under this Ordinance may, subject to subsection (3), make provision in relation to the creation, trial (summarily or on indictment) and punishment of offences.

(3) Regulations made under this Ordinance may not –

(a) provide for offences to be triable only on indictment,
or

(b) authorise the imposition, on conviction of an offence, of a term of imprisonment exceeding 6 months or a fine exceeding level 5 on the Alderney uniform scale.

Regulations may impose charges and fees.

66. (1) The Guernsey Committee may by regulations prescribe any or all of the following –

- (a) an annual fee or charge in respect of a registration, approval, authorisation or certificate which is in force for a definite or indefinite period of more than 12 months,
- (b) a fee or charge for the purposes of any regulations made under this Ordinance, or
- (c) a fee or charge in respect of the performance of any function of authorised officers or the Guernsey Committee under a relevant Ordinance or a designated Community provision.

(2) A fee or charge prescribed under this section is payable by the person specified in the regulations for this purpose, and may be recovered by the Guernsey Committee –

- (a) as a civil debt owed to the Guernsey Committee by the person,
- (b) by deducting the fee or charge from any sum due to that person by the Guernsey Committee, or
- (c) in any other prescribed manner.

Regulations may amend or substitute certain provisions and Schedules.

67. The Guernsey Committee may by regulations amend or substitute –

- (a) section 11, 78 or 79,
- (b) any provision of this Ordinance relating to the taking, testing, analysis, examination or inspection of samples, or
- (c) any Schedule to this Ordinance, except Schedule 9, 11 or 12, or
- (d) any period for the giving of notices, making of applications, submissions or appeals, or the doing of any other thing, specified in any of the following provisions–
  - (i) section 5(2)(g),
  - (ii) section 6(2)(a)(ii),
  - (iii) section 7(1)(a)(ii),
  - (iv) section 9(1)(a),
  - (v) section 14(2)(h),
  - (vi) section 16(1),

- (vii) section 18(1)(b),
- (viii) section 19(6),
- (ix) section 20(1),
- (x) section 38(a),
- (xi) section 55(3)(b),
- (xii) section 56(2),
- (xiii) section 58(4)(a),
- (xiv) section 59(3)(a),
- (xv) paragraph 3 of Schedule 7, or
- (xvi) paragraph 3 of Schedule 8.

Consultation and general provisions as to regulations.

68. (1) Despite any other provision of this Ordinance, the Guernsey Committee must not make any regulations under this Ordinance except after consultation with the Policy and Finance Committee of the States of Alderney.

(2) Any regulation made under this Ordinance—

- (a) may be amended or revoked by a regulation subsequently made under this Ordinance, and

(b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional and savings provisions as may appear to be necessary or expedient.

(3) A power conferred by any provision of this Ordinance to make regulations may be exercised–

(a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,

(b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –

(i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),

(ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,

(iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any conditions specified in the subordinate legislation.

(4) Any regulation made under this Ordinance must be laid before a meeting of the States of Alderney as soon as possible after being made; and, if at that or the next meeting the States of Alderney resolve that the regulation be annulled, then it ceases to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under it or to the making of new regulations.

PART VIII

OFFENCES AND PROCEEDINGS

Obstruction, etc. or provision of false, deceptive or misleading information.

69. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if the person –
- (a) intentionally obstructs an authorised officer or the Guernsey Committee acting in the exercise of the authorised officer's or the Guernsey Committee's functions under this Ordinance,
  - (b) without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any requirement made by an authorised officer acting in the exercise of the authorised officer's functions under this Ordinance,
  - (c) removes, tampers or otherwise interferes with any thing secured against interference or any sample purchased or taken under this Ordinance, or
  - (d) tampers with any substance or thing with the result that a sample purchased or taken without payment under this Ordinance does not correctly represent the substance sampled.

- (2) A person is guilty of an offence if –
- (a) for the purposes of or in connection with an application made under this Ordinance,
  - (b) in purported compliance with any condition of a registration or an approval,
  - (c) in purported compliance with any requirement imposed under, or otherwise for the purposes of, this Ordinance, or
  - (d) otherwise than as mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) but in circumstances in which the person intends, or could reasonably be expected to know, that the information would or might be used by any person for the purpose of exercising that person's functions under this Ordinance, the person does any of the following –

- (i) makes a statement which that person knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,

- (ii) recklessly makes a statement, dishonestly or otherwise, which is false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,
- (iii) produces or furnishes, or causes or permits to be produced or furnished, any information which that person knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular, or
- (iv) recklessly produces or furnishes or recklessly causes or permits to be produced or furnished, dishonestly or otherwise, any information which is false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular.

Criminal liability of directors etc.

70. (1) Where an offence under this Law is committed by a body corporate, limited partnership with legal personality or foundation and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of –

- (a) in the case of a body corporate, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer,
- (b) in the case of a limited partnership with legal personality, any general partner,
- (c) in the case of a foundation, any foundation official, or

- (d) any person purporting to act in any capacity described in paragraphs (a) to (c), that person as well as the body corporate, limited partnership or foundation is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies to a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director.

- (3) In this section -

"body corporate" means a body of persons, of whatever description, incorporated with or without limited liability in any part of the world,

"foundation" means -

- (a) a foundation created under the Foundations (Guernsey) Law, 2012<sup>8</sup>, or
- (b) an equivalent or similar body created or established under the law of another jurisdiction (however named),

"foundation official" means -

<sup>8</sup> Order in Council No. I of 2013.

- (a) in relation to a foundation created under the Foundations (Guernsey) Law, 2012, a foundation official within the meaning of that Law, and
- (b) in relation to an equivalent or similar body created or established under the law of another jurisdiction, a person with functions corresponding to those of a foundation official described in paragraph (a) of this definition, and

"general partner" means –

- (a) in relation to a limited partnership falling within paragraph (a) of the definition in this section of "limited partnership", a general partner within the meaning of the Limited Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 1995<sup>9</sup>, and
- (b) in relation to a limited partnership falling within paragraph (b) of the definition in this section of "limited partnership", a person whose liability for, and functions in relation to, the partnership correspond to that of a general partner described in paragraph (a) of this definition.

- (4) In this section and in section 71 "limited partnership" means-
- (a) an arrangement which is registered as a limited partnership, and in respect of which there is a valid certificate of registration, under the Limited Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 1995, or
  - (b) an arrangement entered into under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Guernsey between two or more persons, under which-
    - (i) one or more of them is, or are jointly and severally, liable without limitation for all debts and obligations to third parties incurred pursuant to the arrangement, and
    - (ii) the others have, by whatever means, contributed or agreed to contribute specified amounts pursuant to the arrangement and are not liable for those debts and obligations (unless they participate in controlling the business or are otherwise subjected to a greater liability by those laws in specified circumstances) beyond the amount contributed or agreed to be contributed,
- whether with or without legal personality.

Criminal proceedings against unincorporated bodies.

71. (1) Where an offence under this Law is committed by an unincorporated body and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of –

- (a) in the case of a partnership (not being a limited partnership with legal personality or a limited liability partnership), any partner,
- (b) in the case of any other unincorporated body, any officer of that body who is bound to fulfil any duty of which the offence is a breach or, if there is no such officer, any member of the committee or other similar governing body, or
- (c) any person purporting to act in any capacity described in paragraph (a) or (b), that person as well as the unincorporated body is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where an offence under this Law is alleged to have been committed by an unincorporated body, proceedings for the offence must, without prejudice to subsection (1), be brought in the name of the body and not in the name of any of its members.

(3) A fine imposed on an unincorporated body on its conviction for an offence under this Law must be paid from the funds of the body.

- (4) In this section "limited liability partnership" means -
- (a) a limited liability partnership formed in Guernsey under the Limited Liability Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 2013<sup>10</sup>, or
  - (b) an entity formed under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Guernsey, being an entity corresponding to a limited liability partnership described in paragraph (a).

Penalties and expenses.

72. (1) A person guilty of an offence under any provision of this Ordinance is liable to the penalty specified for the offence in Schedule 9.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under this Ordinance must pay to the Guernsey Committee all expenses reasonably incurred by the Guernsey Committee in relation to the storage of any seized property that was used in, the subject of, or otherwise involved in, the commission of the offence; and –

- (a) the Guernsey Committee may recover those expenses as a civil debt owed to the committee by that person, and
- (b) this paragraph applies whether or not the seized property is forfeited to the States of Alderney or States of Guernsey under any enactment, but a person is not liable to pay expenses incurred on and from the day on which the thing is so forfeited.

Exception for claims made in accordance with Regulation 1924/2006.

73. (1) Nothing in Parts II to IV prohibits or restricts a claim made in accordance with the conditions of Regulation 1924/2006.

(2) In this section –

"claim" has the meaning given to it by Regulation 1924/2006, and

"Regulation 1924/2006" means Regulation (EC) No. 1924/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 December 2006 on nutrition and health claims made on foods<sup>11</sup>, as given effect and modified by the European Communities (Implementation of Council Regulation on Nutrition and Health Claims) (Alderney) Ordinance, 2014<sup>12</sup>.

Exception for food supplements.

74. Nothing in Parts II to IV regulates the composition, manufacturing specifications, presentation or labelling of a food supplement to which the European Communities (Implementation of Food Supplements Directive) (Alderney) Ordinance, 2014<sup>13</sup> applies.

Defence of due diligence.

75. (1) Subject to subsection (3), in proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, it is a defence for the defendant ("A") to prove both –

- (a) that commission of the offence was due to a mistake or the reliance on information supplied to A, or to the act or default of another person, an accident or some other cause beyond A's control, and
- (b) that A exercised due diligence and took all reasonable precautions to avoid commission of the offence.

(2) If reliance on the defence provided by subsection (1) involves the allegation that the commission of the offence was due to reliance on information supplied by another person or to the act or default of another person, A is not, without leave of the court, entitled to rely on that defence unless, not less than 7 working days before the hearing, A has served on the prosecutor written notice providing information identifying, or assisting in the identification of, that other person.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to an offence under section 69.

Defence of publication in the course of business.

76. In proceedings for an offence under any relevant Ordinance or any regulations made thereunder consisting of the advertisement for sale of any food, it is a defence for the defendant ("A") to prove –

- (a) that A is a person whose business it is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements, and

- (b) that A received the advertisement in the ordinary course of business and did not know and had no reason to suspect that its publication would amount to an offence under any relevant Ordinance or any regulations made thereunder.

Derogations or transitional measures.

77. In proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, it is a defence for the defendant ("A") to prove that A acted in accordance with a derogation or transitional measure laid down by an applicable Community provision relevant to the subject of the offence alleged to have been committed.

Results of analysis not to be adduced unless samples divided.

78. (1) In proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, the result of any test, examination or analysis of, or report on a sample of food purchased or taken without payment under this Ordinance, must not be adduced unless –

- (a) before the proceedings were instituted the sample was divided as specified in paragraph 4 or 5 of Schedule 7, and
- (b) the part, package or container retained by the authorised officer is produced at the trial.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), in proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance arising out of a consumer complaint, in relation to a single sample of food which can neither be divided into parts in accordance with paragraph 4 of Schedule 7, nor divided into lots in accordance with paragraph 5 of Schedule 7, the result of any test, examination or analysis of the sample may be adduced where the sample has, before trial of the proceedings, been made reasonably available to the defendant, or the defendant's agent, for inspection and supplementary expert examination.

Evidence of certificates, etc.

79. (1) In proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, a certificate purported to be signed by a person employed at a designated laboratory where a sample purchased or taken without payment under this Ordinance is analysed stating the capacity in which the person is employed and stating —

- (a) that the person received a sample,
- (b) that, for the period specified in the certificate, the person had the sample in that person's possession,
- (c) that the person gave the sample to another person named in the certificate, or
- (d) that the person carried out a procedure for the purpose of detecting in the sample, a substance or contamination or that the sample contained a substance as is, or was contaminated in a manner, specified in the certificate, is (without proof of the signature of the person or that that person is employed at the laboratory), unless the contrary is proved, evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(2) In proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, an official certificate purporting to be signed by an approved examiner is (without proof of the signature of the examiner or that that examiner is employed at a designated laboratory), unless the contrary is proved, evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(3) A certificate purporting to be signed by an authorised officer and to certify that on a specific day or days or during the whole of a specified period—

- (a) a particular person or particular premises did not stand registered in the feed business register or the food business register,
- (b) the registration of a person or premises in the feed business register or the food business register is suspended or has been revoked,
- (c) a person was or was not the holder of an approval,
- (d) any premises were or were not approved under section 12, or
- (e) that a particular approval or registration was subject to a particular condition or conditions, is, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to sign the certificate or that that person is an authorised officer, evidence, unless the contrary is shown, of the matters stated in the certificate.

(4) In proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, the court may, if it considers that the interests of justice so require, direct that oral evidence of any matter stated in a certificate under paragraph (1), (2) or (3) be given, and the court may for the purpose of receiving oral evidence adjourn the matter.

(5) In proceedings for an offence under a relevant Ordinance, evidence of a Community provision may be given by production of a copy of the provision certified by an authorised officer to be a copy of the provision, and it is not necessary to prove the signature of the authorised officer or that that authorised officer is an authorised officer.

PART IX GENERAL PROVISIONS

Committee may publish and take into account policies and guidance.

80. The Guernsey Committee may make available to the public, in a manner and form the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, any policies and guidance it intends to take into account in exercising its functions under this Ordinance.

Confidentiality.

81. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a person who –
- (a) under or for the purposes of this Ordinance receives any information relating to the business or other affairs of any person, or

- (b) obtains any such document or information directly or indirectly from a person who has so received it, must not disclose the information without the consent of the person to whom it relates and (if different) the person from whom it was so obtained.

(2) A person who discloses any information in contravention of subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(3) Subsection (1) does not preclude -

- (a) the disclosure of information -

- (i) which at the time of disclosure is or has already been made available to the public from other sources, or

- (ii) which is in the form of a summary or collection so framed as not to enable information relating to any particular person to be ascertained from it,

- (b) the disclosure of information for the purpose of enabling or assisting an authorised person to discharge the authorised person's functions under this Ordinance or any other enactment,

- (c) where, in order to enable or assist an authorised person to discharge the authorised person's functions under this Ordinance or any other enactment, that authorised person considers it necessary to seek advice from a qualified person on any matter of law or accountancy or any other matter requiring the exercise of professional skill, the disclosure by that authorised person to the qualified person of such information as appears to that authorised person to be necessary to ensure that that qualified person is properly informed as to the matters on which that qualified person's advice is sought,
- (d) the disclosure of information by an authorised officer or the Guernsey Committee for the purpose of assisting, in the public interest, any authority appearing to the authorised officer or the Guernsey Committee to exercise, in a place outside Alderney, functions corresponding to those of an authorised officer or the Guernsey Committee,
- (e) the disclosure of information in compliance with, or for the purposes of enabling or assisting a person to comply with, any requirement imposed by or under this Ordinance or any other enactment,
- (f) the disclosure of information which is authorised or required by or under this Ordinance or any other enactment,

- (g) the disclosure of information –
  - (i) for the purposes of the investigation, prevention or detection of offences or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders, or
  - (ii) with a view to the instigation of or otherwise for the purposes of any criminal proceedings,
- (h) the disclosure of information in connection with any other proceedings arising out of this Ordinance,
- (i) the disclosure of information with a view to the instigation of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any disciplinary proceedings relating to the exercise of the professional functions of any person,
- (j) the disclosure of information in connection with the discharge of any international obligation to which the Bailiwick may from time to time be subject, or
- (k) the disclosure of information to comply with an order of a court.

(4) In this section, "authorised person" means –

- (a) the Guernsey Committee,

- (b) an authorised officer, or
- (c) an approved examiner.

Protection from self-incrimination.

82. A statement made by a person in response to a requirement imposed by or under this Ordinance ("the statement concerned") –

- (a) may be used in evidence against the person in proceedings other than criminal proceedings, and
- (b) may not be used in evidence against the person in criminal proceedings except -
  - (i) where evidence relating to the statement concerned is adduced, or a question relating to the statement concerned is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of that person,
  - (ii) in proceedings for an offence under section 69(2),
  - (iii) in proceedings for perjury or perverting the course of justice, or
  - (iv) in proceedings where, in giving evidence, that person makes a statement inconsistent with the statement concerned, but in this case the statement concerned is only admissible to the extent necessary to establish the inconsistency.

Apportionment of structural expenditure.

83. (1) This section applies where –
- (a) any compliance notice, emergency notice or order or regulations made under this Ordinance requires or necessitates structural alterations to be made to any premises owned or occupied by a person ("A"),
  - (b) A has incurred, or is about to incur, expenditure in securing compliance with the notice, order or regulations, and
  - (c) A claims that the whole or any part of the expenditure should be borne by any other person ("B") who has an interest in the premises.
- (2) Where this section applies –
- (a) A may apply to the Court of Alderney for an order under this subsection,
  - (b) the Court of Alderney may make any order concerning the the expenditure or its apportionment as appears to the court to be just and equitable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the terms of any contract between A and B, and

- (c) any order made under this subsection may direct that any such contract ceases to have effect insofar as it is inconsistent with the terms of the order.

Temporary continuance of registration or approval on death, etc.

84. (1) This section applies where an individual is registered as a food business operator or feed business operator or holds an approval, and –

- (a) the individual dies,
- (b) a declaration of insolvency has been made against the individual or the individual's affairs have been declared in a state of "désastre" at a meeting of arresting creditors held before a Commissioner of the Royal Court, the Court of Alderney or the court of the Seneschal,
- (c) an interim vesting order has been made against the individual in respect of any real property in the Bailiwick, or
- (d) the individual becomes a person who lacks capacity to carry on the food business or feed business.

(2) In subsection (1)(d), the reference to a person who lacks capacity to carry on the business includes a person for whom a guardian has been appointed by any court and in relation to whom the guardian has power for the purposes of this Part.

(3) Where this section applies, the registration or (as the case may be) approval continues to have effect for the benefit of the individual's legal personal representative, the individual's widow or widower, or any other member of the individual's family, until the expiration of –

- (a) two months following the relevant event in subsection (1), or
- (b) such longer period (not exceeding six months following the relevant event in subsection (1)) as the Guernsey Committee may allow.

Service of documents.

85. (1) A person ("A") who is to give or serve a document under or for the purposes of a relevant Ordinance may give the document to or serve the document on –

- (a) an individual ("P"), by delivering it to P, or by leaving the document at, or sending the document by post or transmitting the document to, P's usual or last known place of abode,
- (b) a body corporate, by leaving the document at, or sending the document by post or transmitting the document to, its registered office,
- (c) a limited partnership –

- (i) by leaving the document at, or sending the document by post or transmitting the document to the partnership's registered office, or
  - (ii) by delivering the document to any general partner thereof, or by leaving the document at or sending the document by post or transmitting the document to, the general partner's address shown in the Register of Limited Partnerships established and maintained under section 7 of the Limited Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 1995<sup>14</sup>,
- (d) an unincorporated body, by giving the document to or serving the document on any partner, member, manager or officer thereof in accordance with paragraph (a), or by leaving the document at or sending the document by post or transmitting the document to the body's principal or last known principal place of business in the Bailiwick, and
- (e) a Guernsey foundation –

- (i) by leaving the document at or sending the document by post to the foundation's registered office, or
- (ii) by delivering the document to any councillor thereof, or by leaving the document at or sending the document by post to his address shown in the Register of Foundations established and maintained under paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the Foundations (Guernsey) Law, 2012.

(2) In subsection (1) –

"by post" means by recorded delivery service or ordinary letter post,

"Guernsey foundation" means a foundation created under the Foundations (Guernsey) Law, 2012, and

"transmit" means transmit by electronic communication, facsimile transmission or other similar means which produce or enable the production of a document containing the text of the communication; in which event the document is to be regarded as served when it is received.

(3) If P is a child or person under a legal disability, the document is to be given or served on P's guardian; and if there is no guardian, A may apply to Court of Alderney or the Royal Court for the appointment of a person to act as guardian for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(4) A document sent by post is, unless the contrary is shown, deemed for the purposes of any relevant Ordinance to have been received on the third day after the day of posting, excluding any day which is not a working day.

(5) The sending of a document by post is proved by showing the date of posting, the address thereon and the fact of prepayment.

(6) If A does not know and cannot reasonably ascertain, the name of any person to whom A desires to give or on whom A desires to serve a document, A may address the document by description instead of by name.

(7) If A cannot, after reasonable enquiry, give or serve a document in accordance with this section, the document may be given or served under or for the purposes of a relevant Ordinance by being published in La Gazette Officielle on two occasions falling in successive weeks.

Extended meaning of "sale", "sell" and "place on the market".

86. (1) In this Ordinance, "sale", "sell" and "place on the market" have the extended meanings provided by subsections (2) to (5).

(2) "Sell" includes -

in the course of a business,

(b) the supply of the food or feed, otherwise than by sale, at, in, or from any place where food or feed is supplied in the course of a business,

(c) any other thing which is done with respect to the food or feed that is prescribed to be so deemed in any regulation made by the Guernsey Committee.

(4) This Ordinance applies–

(a) in relation to any food or feed which is offered as a prize or reward or given away in connection with any entertainment to which the public are admitted, whether on payment of money or not, as if the food or feed were, or had been, exposed for sale by each person concerned in the organisation of the entertainment,

(b) in relation to any food or feed which, for the purpose of advertisement or in furtherance of any trade or business, is offered as a prize or reward or given away, as if the food or feed were, or had been, exposed for sale by the person offering or giving away the food or feed, and

(c) in relation to any food or feed which is exposed or deposited in any premises for the purpose of being so

offered or given away as mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), as if the food or feed were, or had been, exposed for sale by the person who exposed or deposited the food or feed in those premises, and in this subsection "entertainment" includes any social gathering, amusement, exhibition, performance, game, sport or trial of skill.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, to "place on the market", in relation to any food or feed, includes sell the food or feed.

Meaning of "necessary for the protection of human health, animal health or the environment".

87. In this Ordinance, a reference to the protection of human health, animal health or the environment, includes a reference to the prevention, control or eradication of any disease or contamination of feed or food.

(2) In determining whether or not an action or a requirement is necessary for the protection of animal health, the Guernsey Committee must consult the States of Guernsey Veterinary Officer.

Presumptions relating to human consumption.

88. For the purposes of this Ordinance and any regulations made under it-

- (a) any thing commonly used for human consumption, if sold or offered, exposed or kept for sale, must be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have been sold or, as the case may be, to have been or to be intended for sale, for human consumption,

- (b) any thing commonly used for human consumption which is found on premises used for the preparation, storage, or sale of the thing and any thing commonly used in the manufacture of products for human consumption which is found on premises used for the preparation, storage or sale of those products, must be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be intended for sale, or for manufacturing products for sale, for human consumption,
- (c) any substance capable of being used in the composition or preparation of any thing commonly used for human consumption which is found on premises on which that thing is prepared must, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be intended for such use.

Interpretation.

89. (1) In this Ordinance, unless the context requires otherwise -

"Alderney" means the Island of Alderney, including the territorial waters adjacent to this island,

"Alderney uniform scale" means the uniform scale of fines for the time being in force in Alderney under the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989<sup>15</sup>,

"applicable Community provision", in relation to any matter, means–

- (a) any designated Community provision,
- (b) any other Community provision, to the extent that the provision is given effect in Alderney by a relevant Ordinance or any other enactment, or
- (c) any other Community provision that is directly applicable in Alderney, that is relevant to the matter,

"approval" means a food business approval or feed business approval granted by the Guernsey Committee under Part III,

An aggregate of 1 tonne of any meat preparation, meat and meat products.	0 pints of raw drinking milk.  0 eggs.  An aggregate of 1 tonne of any fish, shellfish and fishery products.

3. The producer must –

- (a) keep a record in adequate form to show the number of animals received into, and the amounts of primary product despatched from, that producer's premises during each day, week or calendar year, as relevant to the limits specified in paragraph 1 for the primary product,

- (b) retain the record for a period of one year, and
  - (c) make the record available to an authorised officer on request.
4. In this Schedule, "designated animal" means any bovine animal, pig, sheep, goat, ratite or deer.
5. In this Schedule –
- (a) 1 livestock unit is the equivalent of a bovine aged 24 months or more, a suckler cow, a dairy cow or a horse,
  - (b) 0.6 livestock units is the equivalent of a bovine aged between 6 and 24 months,
  - (c) 0.3 livestock units is the equivalent of a pig aged 12 months or more or a bovine aged under 6 months,
  - (d) 0.2 livestock units is the equivalent of a pig aged less than 12 months or a red deer aged 12 months or more,
  - (e) 0.15 livestock units is the equivalent of a sheep or goat, and
  - (f) 0.1 livestock units is the equivalent of a ratite or a deer other than a deer referred to in subparagraph (d).

TRACEABILITY INFORMATION – FOOD OF NON-ANIMAL ORIGIN (EXCEPT SPROUTS AND SEEDS INTENDED FOR THE PRODUCTION OF SPROUTS)

Section 25(2)(a) and (b)

1. This Schedule applies to food of non-animal origin, including food containing both products of plant origin and processed products of animal origin, but does not apply to sprouts and seeds intended for the production of sprouts.

2. The food business operator must, as a minimum, keep the following information –
  - (a) in relation to food supplied to the food business operator –
    - (i) name of supplier,
    - (ii) address of supplier,
    - (iii) nature of products supplied, and
    - (iv) date of transaction/delivery,

  - (b) in relation to food supplied by the food business operator to another business –

- (i) name of customer,
- (ii) address of customer,
- (iii) nature of products supplied, and
- (iv) date of transaction/delivery.

3. The food business operator must keep the information referred to in paragraph 2 at least until it can be reasonably assumed that the food has been consumed.

SCHEDULE 4
TRACEABILITY INFORMATION – FOOD OF ANIMAL

Section 25(2)(c), (d) and (e)

1. This Schedule applies to food of animal origin, which includes both unprocessed products and processed products, as defined in article 2(1) of Regulation 852/2004.

2. The food business operator must, as a minimum, keep the following information concerning consignments of food –
  - (a) an accurate description of the food,

  - (b) the volume or quantity of the food,

  - (c) the name and address of the food business operator from which the food has been dispatched,

  - (d) the name and address of the consignor (owner), if different from the food business operator, from which the food has been dispatched,

  - (e) the name and address of the food business operator to whom the food is dispatched,

  - (f) the name and address of the consignee (owner), if different from the food business operator, to whom the food is dispatched,

- (g) a reference identifying the lot, batch or consignment, as appropriate, and
  - (h) the date of dispatch.
3. The information referred to in paragraph 2 must be updated on a daily basis.
  4. The information referred to in paragraph 2 must be kept available at least until it can be reasonably assumed that the food has been consumed.
  5. The information referred to in paragraph 2 must be made clearly and unequivocally available to and retrievable by the food business operator to whom the food is supplied, in addition to any information required under applicable Community provisions concerning the traceability of food of animal origin.
  6. The information referred to in paragraph 2 must be provided, on demand, to an authorised officer, without undue delay, in addition to any information required under applicable Community provisions concerning the traceability of food of animal origin.

SCHEDULE 5
TRACEABILITY INFORMATION – SPROUTS AND SEEDS
INTENDED FOR THE PRODUCTION OF SPROUTS

Section 25(2)(f), (g), (h) and (i)

1. In this Schedule, "batch" means a quantity of sprouts or seeds intended for the production of sprouts, with the same taxonomic name, which is dispatched from the same premises to the same destination on the same day. One or more batches can make up a consignment. However, seeds with a different taxonomic name, which are mixed in the same packaging and intended to be germinated together and sprouts thereof are also considered as one batch.
2. This Schedule applies to batches of sprouts and seeds intended for the production of sprouts but does not apply to sprouts after they have undergone a treatment which eliminates microbiological hazards in a manner compatible with Community provisions.
3. The food business operator must, as a minimum, keep the following information –
  - (a) an accurate description of the seeds or sprouts, including the taxonomic name of the plant,
  - (b) the volume or quantity of the seeds or sprouts supplied,
  - (c) where the seeds or sprouts had been dispatched from another food business operator, the name and address of –

- (i) the food business operator from which the seeds or sprouts have been dispatched, and
  - (ii) the consignor (owner) if different from the food business operator from which the seeds or sprouts have been dispatched,
- (d) the name and address of the food business operator to whom the seeds or sprouts are dispatched,
- (e) the name and address of the consignee (owner), if different from the food business operator to whom the seeds or sprouts are dispatched,
- (f) a reference identifying the batch as appropriate, and
- (g) the date of dispatch.
4. The food business operator ("A") must ensure that the information needed to comply with paragraph 3 is transmitted to any food business operator to whom A supplies the seeds or sprouts.
5. The information referred to in paragraph 3 may be kept on record and transmitted in any appropriate form, provided that it is easily retrievable by the food business operator to whom the seeds or sprouts are supplied.
6. The food business operator must transmit the relevant information referred to in paragraph 3 on a daily basis.

7. The food business operator must update the records referred to in paragraph 3 on a daily basis and keep them available for a sufficient time after the sprouts can be assumed to have been consumed.

8. The food business operator must provide the information referred to in paragraph 3, on demand, to an authorised officer, without undue delay.

SCHEDULE 6
TEMPERATURE CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

Section 37

1. Application of this Schedule.

This Schedule does not apply in relation to –

- (a) any food business operation to which Regulation 853/2004 applies, or
- (b) any food business operation carried out on a vessel or aircraft.

2. Chill holding requirements.

(1) Subject to subparagraph (2) and paragraph 3, no person may keep any food–

- (a) which is likely to support the growth of pathogenic micro-organisms or the formation of toxins, and
- (b) with respect to which any commercial operation is being carried out, at or in food premises at a temperature above 8°C.

(2) Subparagraph (1) does not apply in relation to any food which, as part of an indirect sale, is being conveyed to the final consumer.

(3) Subject to paragraph 3, no person may supply any food by indirect sale which –

- (a) is likely to support the growth of pathogenic micro-organisms or the formation of toxins, and
- (b) is being or has been conveyed by post or by a private or common carrier to the final consumer, at a temperature which has given rise to or is likely to give rise to a risk to human health.

3. General exemptions from the chill holding requirements.

Neither subparagraph (1) nor (3) of paragraph 2 applies in relation to –

- (a) food which –
  - (i) has been cooked or reheated,
  - (ii) is for service or on display for sale, and
  - (iii) needs to be kept at or above 63°C in order to control the growth of pathogenic micro-organisms or the formation of toxins,
- (b) food which, for the duration of its shelf life may be kept at ambient temperatures with no risk to human health,
- (c) food which is being or has been subjected to a process such as dehydration or canning intended to prevent the growth of pathogenic micro-organisms at ambient temperatures, but not where –

- (i) after or by virtue of that process the food was contained in a hermetically sealed container, and
  - (ii) that container has been opened,
- (d) food which must be ripened or matured at ambient temperatures, but not when the process of ripening or maturation is completed,
- (e) raw food intended for further processing (including cooking) before human consumption, but only if that processing, if undertaken correctly, will render that food fit for human consumption,
- (f) food to which Regulation 1906/90 applies, or
- (g) food to which Regulation 1907/90 applied.

4. Upward variation of the 8 degrees centigrade temperature by manufacturers etc.

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence of contravening paragraph 2(1), it is a defence for the defendant to prove that –
- (a) a food business responsible for manufacturing, preparing or processing the food, including, where relevant, the defendant, has recommended that it is kept –
    - (i) at or below a specified temperature between 8°C and ambient temperatures, and

- (ii) for a period not exceeding a specified shelf life,
  - (b) that recommendation has, unless the defendant is that food business, been communicated to the defendant either by means of a label on the packaging of the food or by means of some other appropriate form of written instruction,
  - (c) the food was not kept by the defendant at a temperature above the specified temperature, and
  - (d) at the time of the commission of the alleged offence, the specified shelf life had not been exceeded.
- (2) A food business responsible for manufacturing, preparing or processing food must not recommend that any food is kept –
- (a) at or below a specified temperature between 8°C and ambient temperatures, and
  - (b) for a period not exceeding a specified shelf life, unless that recommendation is supported by a well-founded scientific assessment of the safety of the food at the specified temperature.

5. Chill holding tolerance periods.

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence of contravening paragraph 2(1), it is a defence for the defendant to prove that the food –
- (a) was for service or on display for sale,

- (b) had not previously been kept for service or on display for sale at a temperature above 8°C or, where a recommendation has been made pursuant to paragraph 4(1), the recommended temperature, and
  - (c) had been kept for service or on display for sale for a period of less than four hours.
- (2) In any proceedings for an offence of contravening paragraph 2(1), it is a defence for the defendant to prove that the food –
- (a) was kept at a temperature above 8°C or, in appropriate circumstances, the recommended temperature for a limited period only and that period was consistent with food safety, and was being transferred –
    - (i) from premises at which the food was going to be kept at or below 8°C or, in appropriate circumstances, the recommended temperature, to a vehicle used for the purposes of a food business, or
    - (ii) to such premises from such a vehicle, or
  - (b) was kept at a temperature above 8°C or, in appropriate circumstances, the recommended temperature for an unavoidable reason, such as –
    - (i) to accommodate the practicalities of handling during and after processing or preparation,

(ii) the defrosting of equipment, or

(iii) temporary breakdown of equipment.

6. Hot holding requirements.

No person may, in the course of the activities of a food business, keep at or in food premises at a temperature below 63°C any food which –

(a) has been cooked or reheated,

(b) is for service or on display for sale, and

(c) needs to be kept at or above 63°C in order to control the growth of pathogenic micro-organisms or the formation of toxins.

7. Hot holding defences.

(1) In any proceedings for an offence of contravening paragraph 6, it is a defence for the defendant to prove that –

(a) a well-founded scientific assessment of the safety of the food at temperatures below 63°C has concluded that there is no risk to human health if, after cooking or reheating, the food is held for service or on display for sale –

(i) at a holding temperature which is below 63°C, and

(ii) for a period not exceeding any period of time specified in that scientific assessment, and

- (b) at the time of the commission of the alleged offence, the food was held in a manner which was justified in the light of that scientific assessment.
- (2) In any proceedings for an offence of contravening paragraph 6, it is a defence for the defendant to prove that the food –
  - (a) had been kept for service or on display for sale for a period of less than two hours, and
  - (b) had not previously been kept for service or on display for sale by that person.

8. Reheating of food.

- (1) This paragraph applies to food which has been heated in the course of a food business operation.
- (2) A person who reheats food to which this paragraph applies before that food is served for immediate consumption or exposed for sale must, when reheating that food, raise it to a temperature of not less than 82°C.

9. Reheating defences.

In any proceedings for an offence of contravening paragraph 8(2), it is a defence for the defendant to prove that the food could not have been raised to a temperature of not less than 82°C without a deterioration of its qualities.

10. Interpretation.

In this Schedule –

"food premises" means any premises in or from which a food business is operated,

"indirect sale", in relation to food –

- (a) means sale of the food to the final consumer, where the seller (or the seller's employee or agent) and the buyer are not in the same place at the time of the sale, and
- (b) includes a sale made by way of internet, electronic mail, telephone, facsimile or mail order,

"recommended temperature" means a specified temperature which has been recommended in accordance with subparagraph (1)(a)(i) of paragraph 4,

"Regulation 1906/90" means Council Regulation (EEC) No 1906/90<sup>94</sup> on certain marketing standards for poultry as last amended by Council Regulation (EC) No 1101/98<sup>95</sup> amending Regulation (EEC) No 1906/90 on certain marketing standards for poultry meat,

"Regulation 1907/90" means Council Regulation (EEC) No 1907/90<sup>96</sup> on certain marketing standards for eggs as last amended by Council Regulation (EC)

No 2052/2003<sup>97</sup> amending Regulation (EEC) No 1907/90 on certain marketing standards for eggs,

"Regulation 1169/2011" means Regulation (EU) No 1169/2011<sup>98</sup> of the European Parliament and of the Council on the provision of food information to consumers, and

"shelf life" means –

- (a) in relation to food for which a date of minimum durability is required in accordance with Article 9(1)(f) of Regulation 1169/2011, as read with Article 24(1) and (2) of that Regulation, the period up to and including the required date of minimum durability,
- (b) in relation to food for which a "use by" date is required in accordance with Article 9(1)(f) of Regulation 1169/2011, as read with Article 24(1) and (2) of that Regulation, the period up to and including the required "use by" date, and
- (c) in relation to food which is not required to bear an indication of minimum durability or a "use by" date, the period for which the food can be expected to remain fit for sale if it is kept in a manner which is consistent with food safety.

SCHEDULE 7
SAMPLING AND RELATED POWERS AND DUTIES

Section 41(8)

1. This Schedule applies where an authorised officer purchases or takes without payment a sample of food under this Ordinance with the intention of having the sample analysed.
2. The authorised officer must, after purchasing or taking the sample, promptly notify the food business operator, or the person in apparent charge or control of the food, of that authorised officer's intention of having the sample analysed.
3. Where an authorised officer purchases or takes without payment a sample of food which is suspected by the authorised officer -
  - (a) to be unsafe, or
  - (b) to fail to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance applicable to such a food or with the relevant provisions of Regulation 178/2002,the authorised officer may, by notice in writing to the food business operator, or person in apparent charge or control of such food, prohibit the removal of the food except to any place which may be specified in the notice, during such period as may be specified in the notice, but not exceeding 15 days from the date of the taking of the sample.

4. If the division of a sample is reasonably practicable, the authorised officer must divide the sample into three approximately equal parts (enforcement, trade (defence) and referee), each of which that authorised officer must mark in such a way as to identify it as a part of the sample taken. The authorised officer must, in the presence of the food business operator, or person in apparent charge or control of the food –

(a) mark, seal and fasten each part in a manner that its nature permits, and in such a way that the integrity of the sample is not compromised,

(b) forward one part to the approved examiner in a designated laboratory for analysis,

(c) give or send one part to the food business operator (or person in apparent charge or control of the food), and

(d) retain the third part.

5. If a sample consists of food contained in unopened containers and its division into parts -

(a) is not reasonably practicable, or

(b) might affect the composition or impede the proper analysis of the sample, the authorised officer may divide the containers into three lots and deal with each lot as if it were a sample of the kind mentioned in paragraph 4.

6. The approved examiner or a person under that examiner's direction must analyse as soon as possible any sample of a food submitted to that examiner by an authorised officer and that examiner must certify to the authorised officer, the result of such analysis in the form of an official certificate.

7. Where a sample of food is submitted for analysis by an approved examiner, the Guernsey Committee must draw up a report in accordance with article 9 of Regulation 882/2004, and where the certificate given in accordance with paragraph 6 indicates that there has been non-compliance with the relevant provisions of Regulation 178/2002, the Guernsey Committee must, as soon as practicable, provide the food business operator with a copy of the report.

SCHEDULE 8

DETENTION, STORAGE AND DISPOSAL OF SEIZED PROPERTY

Section 51(1)

1. The Guernsey Committee may store seized property in any manner and place it considers appropriate before the seized property is disposed of in accordance with this Ordinance.
2. Any person who appears to the Guernsey Committee to be the owner of the property must be given reasonable access to that property.
3. Any seized property must be returned to its owner within 40 days of its seizure under this Ordinance, except –
  - (a) to the extent that the owner of the property has consented to the continued detention, sale, destruction or other disposal, of the property,
  - (b) to the extent that an authorised officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the property is evidence in an offence under a relevant Ordinance which the officer is investigating, and that it is necessary to retain that property for the investigation or potential or ongoing proceedings for the offence,
  - (c) where the Guernsey Committee has disposed of the property under paragraph 4,
  - (d) where the Guernsey Committee has applied for an order in respect of the property under section 55 but the court has not made an order in respect of that property, or

(e) where a competent court has ordered otherwise.

4. Where, for any reason it is not practicable for the Guernsey Committee to apply to the court for an order under section 55(8) (for example, because the seized property is perishable, its storage involves unreasonable expense or inconvenience, or the cost and expense of making an application outweighs the likely value of the property) –

(a) the Guernsey Committee may dispose of that property in any manner the Guernsey Committee considers appropriate, including, for the avoidance of doubt, by destroying that property, but

(b) as soon as practicable after disposing of the property, the Guernsey Committee must give written notice of the disposal ("disposal notice") to the owner of the property or any person who appears to be the owner of the property (whether at the time of the disposal or any subsequent time).
