Media Release

For immediate release: 08 July 2019

Article on the Sunday Times 7th July 2019

The States of Alderney is aware of a report by Gabriel Pogrand in the Sunday Times which made reference to allegations of impropriety on the part of private individuals who may have benefited from the FAB Link project.

These claims are the subject of preliminary investigations by the Guernsey Police and it would not be appropriate for the States of Alderney to make any comment on the matter while investigations are being undertaken.
