

States of Alderney

NOTICE

Change of time and location for meeting with land owners regarding the proposed wildlife legislation

The States of Alderney invites any land owner with concerns regarding the proposed wildlife legislation to a public consultation meeting on Saturday 28th November. However please note that the time of the meeting has been rescheduled to 14.30 at the Butes to avoid confusion with voting at the Island Hall.

States members and staff will be available to answer questions and discuss concerns that land owners may have regarding the proposed wildlife legislation.

A copy of the proposed wildlife legislation guidance notes are available on the States of Alderney website <http://alderney.gov.gg/article/179952/Wildlife-Law>

In order to ensure sufficient room and circulation of agenda and papers for the meeting, anyone intending to attend should contact Catherine.veron@gov.gg to book a place. Alternatively telephone 820000.