The European Communities (Implementation of Food Supplements Directive) (Alderney) Ordinance, 2014

THE STATES OF ALDERNEY, in pursuance of their Resolution of the [insert date], and in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 1 and 4 of the European Communities (Implementation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1994^a, hereby order:-

Purpose of this Ordinance.

1. The purpose of this Ordinance is to implement in respect of the Island certain provisions in the Food Supplements Directive.

Application.

2. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), this Ordinance applies to food supplements sold as foodstuffs and presented as such.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance applies to –

(a) the sale of a medicinal product, or

(b) the sale of a food supplement, to the extent that –

(i) the food supplement is sold only to a person located outside the EU market, and

(ii) the final destination of the food supplement is a place outside the EU market.

^a Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXV(1), p. 65.

(3) In subsection (2) –

"EU market" –

(a) means the Member States of the European Union, and

(b) for the avoidance of doubt, includes the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Bailiwick of Jersey and the Isle of Man, and

"medicinal product" has the meaning given by section 133(1) of the Medicines (Human and Veterinary) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2008^b.

Requirement for prepackaging.

3. A person who sells any food supplement to the ultimate consumer commits an offence unless the food supplement is prepacked.

Restriction on vitamins and minerals that may be used in the manufacture of food supplements.

4. (1) A person who sells any food supplement in the manufacture of which a vitamin or mineral has been used commits an offence unless that vitamin or mineral –

(a) is listed in Annex I to the Food Supplements Directive,

^b Order in Council No. V of 2009; as amended by Recueil d'Ordonnances Tome XXXIII, p. 540.

- (b) is in a form which –
 - (i) is listed in Annex II to the Food Supplements Directive, and
 - (ii) meets the relevant purity criteria.

(2) The relevant purity criteria for the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(ii) are –

- (a) the purity criteria, if any, specified by a Community provision for the use of the substance in question in the manufacture of food for purposes other than those covered by the Food Supplements Directive, or
- (b) in the absence of such purity criteria, generally acceptable purity criteria for the substance in question recommended by international bodies.

Restriction on sale relating to name.

5. A person who sells a food supplement which is ready for delivery to the ultimate consumer or to a catering establishment commits an offence unless the name under which the food supplement is sold is "food supplement".

Restriction on sale relating to mention of balanced and varied diet.

6. A person who sells any food supplement which is ready for delivery to the ultimate consumer or to a catering establishment commits an offence if the labelling, presentation or advertising of that food supplement includes any mention, express or implied, that a balanced and varied diet cannot provide appropriate quantities of nutrients in general.

Requirement to mark or label prepacked food supplements.

7. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a person commits an offence who sells any food supplement which –

- (a) is ready for delivery to the ultimate consumer, or
- (b) is ready for delivery to a catering establishment and is prepacked, unless the particulars specified in Schedule 1 appear in accordance with the requirements of that schedule –

- (i) on the packaging,
- (ii) on a label attached to the packaging, or
- (iii) on a label which is clearly visible through the packaging.

(2) Subsection (3) applies where –

- (a) the sale is otherwise than to the ultimate consumer,
- (b) it can be guaranteed that commercial documents relating to the food supplement –
 - (i) accompany the food supplement to which they relate, or

- (ii) were sent before, or at the same time as, delivery of the food supplement, and
- (c) the particulars required by article 3 of the 1995 Order in relation to food are marked or labelled on the outermost packaging in which that food supplement is sold.

(3) Where this subsection applies, the particulars specified in Schedule 1 may alternatively appear, in accordance with the requirements of that schedule, only on the commercial documents referred to in subsection (2)(b).

Requirement to mark or label non-prepacked food supplements.

8. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person commits an offence who sells any food supplement which is ready for delivery to a catering establishment and is not prepacked, unless the particulars specified in Schedule 1 appear in accordance with the requirements of that schedule –

- (a) on a label attached to the food supplement, or
- (b) on a ticket or notice which is readily discernible by the intending purchaser at the place where he chooses the food supplement.

(2) Where it can be guaranteed that commercial documents relating to the food supplement –

- (a) accompany the food supplement to which they relate, or

- (b) were sent before, or at the same time as, delivery of the food supplement, the particulars specified in Schedule 1 may alternatively appear, in accordance with the requirements of that schedule, only on those commercial documents.

Penalties.

9. A person guilty of an offence under any of sections 3, 4(1), 5, 6, 7(1) or 8(1) is liable on summary conviction or conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the uniform scale.

Application of provisions of 1970 Law.

10. (1) The provisions of the 1970 Law specified in Schedule 2, as applied in the Island (subject to modifications), have effect for the purposes of this Ordinance subject to the further modifications set out in that schedule.

(2) In construing an expression used in any provision of the 1970 Law applied by subsection (1), if there is a conflict between a construction favoured by section 54 of that Law and a construction favoured by section 13 or 14 of this Ordinance, the latter construction is to prevail.

Enforcement.

11. The Department is responsible for administering and enforcing this Ordinance.

Transitional provisions.

12. Before the second anniversary of the commencement date, nothing in this Ordinance applies to the sale of a food supplement to the extent that –

- (a) the food supplement is sold only to a person located within the Bailiwick of Guernsey or Bailiwick of Jersey, and
- (b) the final destination of the food supplement is a place within the Bailiwick of Guernsey or Bailiwick of Jersey.

Extended meaning of "sale", etc.

13. (1) In this Ordinance, "sell" includes –

- (a) possess for sale, and
- (b) offer, expose, or advertise for sale.

(2) For the purposes of this Ordinance –

- (a) the supply of a food supplement, otherwise than on sale, in the course of a business, and
- (b) any other thing which is done with respect to a food supplement and is specified in an order made by the Department, is deemed to be a sale of the food supplement, and references to purchasers and purchasing are to be construed accordingly.

(3) This Ordinance applies –

- (a) in relation to any food supplement which is offered as a prize or reward or given away in connection with any entertainment to which the public are admitted, whether on payment of money or not, as if the food supplement were, or had been, exposed for sale by each person concerned in the organisation of the entertainment,

- (b) in relation to any food supplement which, for the purpose of advertisement or in furtherance of any trade or business, is offered as a prize or reward or given away, as if the food supplement were, or had been, exposed for sale by the person offering or giving away the food supplement, and
- (c) in relation to any food supplement which is exposed or deposited in any premises for the purpose of being so offered or given away as mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), as if the food supplement were, or had been, exposed for sale by the occupier of the premises, and in this subsection "entertainment" includes any social gathering, amusement, exhibition, performance, game, sport or trial of skill.
