(2) A limited partnership shall have a continuous and successive existence in the persons of its partners present and future until its dissolution.

Constitution of limited partnerships.

2. (1) A limited partnership shall consist of -

(a) one or more general partners who -

(i) are admitted to the partnership as general partners in accordance with the partnership agreement, and

(ii) shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts of the partnership without limitation, and

(b) one or more limited partners -

(i) who are admitted to the partnership as limited partners in accordance with the partnership agreement,

(ii) one or more of whom may be administrative partners for the purposes of this Law,

(iii) who upon entering the partnership, contribute or agree to contribute to the capital thereof a specified sum, and

(iv) who subject to the provisions of sections 5(3), 16(3) and 24(2), shall not be liable for any debts of the partnership beyond the amount so contributed or agreed to be contributed.

(2) A person may be both a general partner, and a limited partner who is not an administrative partner.

(3) A body corporate or (provided that it has capacity to do so) a partnership may be a general partner or a limited partner.

(4) The contribution of a limited partner may be satisfied by the provision of money or property but not of services or loans; and, where property is so provided, the value of the property shall be deemed to be its fair market value at the time of its transfer to the partnership.

Partnership agreement.

3. (1) Every limited partnership shall have a partnership agreement.

(2) The partnership agreement shall be an agreement in writing of the partners as to the affairs of the partnership and the conduct of its business.

(3) The partnership agreement shall be binding upon the partners and their assigns and upon subsequent partners in the same manner as if those persons had themselves executed it.

(4) A partnership agreement may (without prejudice to any other formalities required by law or by the agreement itself) be amended only by an instrument in writing.

(5) All amendments duly made to a partnership agreement shall be binding upon the persons and in the manner mentioned in subsection (3).

Liability of limited partnerships.

4. Subject to the provisions of section 2(1) –

(a) the acts of –

(i) a general partner, and

(ii) a limited partner who is an administrative partner,

(b) every partner is liable jointly and severally with the other partners for all debts of the limited partnership incurred while he is a partner,

(c) where by any wrongful act or omission of a partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the limited partnership -

(3) Upon receipt of the fee and documents specified in subsection (2) the Greffier shall -

- (a) register the partnership in the Register by inscribing its name therein, and and thereupon the partnership shall be deemed to have been registered as a limited partnership for the purposes of this Law.

(4) The Court may, in its absolute discretion and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, on an application by or on behalf of any partner of a limited partnership, by order authorise the rectification of any error or formal defect -

(a) in the entries relating to the partnership in the Register,

(b) in any declaration or other document filed with the Greffier in relation to the partnership under or for the purposes of this Law.

(5) The Greffier, when registering a limited partnership in the Register under this section, and when issuing a certificate of registration in relation to the partnership under sections 9 or 12, may rely upon the documents filed with the Greffe in all respects and shall not be bound to enquire further as to whether, in relation to the partnership, the formalities prescribed by this Law have been complied with.

(3) Where the general partners -

notice of the change signed by any one or more of the general partners shall, within a period of 21 days beginning on the date of the change, be filed with the Greffier; and, where the change is to the partnership's name or registered office, the change shall not be effective until the Greffier has issued a new certificate of registration, upon the issue of which the existing certificate shall cease to be valid.

- (2) In default of compliance with subsection (1) -

- (a) the partnership and each general partner thereof shall be guilty of an offence, and
- (b) the change may not be relied on by the partnership or by any general partner or former general partner thereof so as to affect adversely the rights of any third person or limited partner.

(2) This section is without prejudice to the provisions of this Law in relation to the dissolution of limited partnerships.

PART II

and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the partnership agreement, a limited partner also has the same right as a general partner to have the partnership dissolved by order of the Court under section 32(1).

Institution of legal proceedings.

17. (1) Legal proceedings by, against or otherwise in relation to a limited partnership (including proceedings to enforce a foreign judgment by or against the partnership) may only be instituted by or against any one or more of the general partners; and, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), no limited partner shall be a party to or named in such proceedings.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) are without prejudice to the right of any person to join or otherwise institute proceedings against a limited partner

- (b) to obtain payment of any contribution or repayment of any amount pursuant to section 24(2).

(3) A limited partner may, with leave of the Court, institute proceedings on behalf of a limited partnership if -

Records.

18. (1) A limited partnership shall keep the following or a copy thereof at its registered office -

- (a) the partnership agreement and every amendment thereof,
- (b) a register of all persons who are limited partners (referred to in this Law as "the register of limited partners") showing their full names and addresses, and identifying any who are administrative partners, or containing a statement that none is an administrative partner (as the case may be),

(c) the capital account of each limited partner showing whichever of the following is applicable in relation to him -

(i) the amounts and dates of any contributions, that the partnership's balance sheet and profit and loss account are prepared properly and in accordance with any relevant enactment for the time being in force, and the accounting records shall in particular contain day-to-day entries of all sums of money received and expended by the partnership and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place and a record of the assets and liabilities of the partnership,

- (e) the minutes of all meetings of the general partners, and of all meetings of the general partners and administrative partners together (if any), and

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the documents described in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) may, instead of being kept at the partnership's registered office, be kept at such other place as the general partners think fit where they shall, subject to the provisions of the partnership agreement, be available for inspection by any partner during ordinary business hours.

(5) If the documents referred to in subsection (4) are kept at a place outside Alderney, accounts and returns in respect of the business dealt with in them shall be sent to, and kept at, a place in Alderney, where they shall, subject to the provisions of the partnership agreement, be available for inspection by any partner during ordinary business hours.

(6) The accounts and returns to be sent to and kept in Alderney in accordance with subsection (5) shall be such as to -

(7) Any accounting records which a partnership is required by this section to keep shall be preserved by it for a period of at least 6 years from the date on which they are made.

(8) Any account, record or other document required by this Law to be kept by a partnership may be kept either by making entries in books or by recording the matters in question in any other manner including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, a non-legible form.

(9) If any such account, record or other document is kept not by making entries in a book but in some other manner -

- (a) it is deemed for the purposes of this Law to be kept at a place if access to it and written copies of it can be obtained at that place; to the provisions of any regulations made under section 51(e), appoint an auditor to act in relation to the affairs of the partnership.

- (a) required to do so by the partnership agreement,
- (b) required to do so by limited partners whose contribution is greater than 50 per cent of the total contribution of all limited partners,
- (c) required to do so in such circumstances, or by such body, as may be prescribed, or

- (c) where appointed under subsection (2)(b), by limited partners whose contribution is greater than 50 per cent of the total contribution of all limited partners,
- (d) where appointed under subsection (2)(c), in such circumstances, or by such body, as may be prescribed,
- (e) where appointed under subsection (2)(d), if the partnership is no longer one to which subsection (3) applies.

(6) The Court may, on the application of any partner or creditor of a limited partnership, remove from office any auditor of the partnership, and appoint another to act in that auditor's place.

(8) The remuneration of a partnership's auditors shall be determined by the general partners or, where the auditors are appointed by the Court, by the Court.

(9) For the avoidance of doubt, the removal from office of an auditor shall not affect any rights that the auditor has against the partnership.

Qualification for appointment as auditor.

20. Section 78 of the Companies (Alderney) Law, 1994<sup>c</sup> (qualification for appointment as auditor) applies to limited partnerships as it applies to companies under that Law.

Auditors' report.

(i) in the balance sheet, of the state of the partnership's affairs at the end of the financial year to which it relates, and

(3) An auditors' report made in relation to a limited partnership together with the audited accounts thereof shall be deposited with the Commission within a period of six months or such shorter period as may be required in the partnership agreement (or such other period as the Commission may by notice in writing allow in any particular case) immediately following the last day of the financial year to which the report relates.

(4) Where in relation to a limited partnership there is a contravention of subsection (3), the partnership and each general partner thereof shall be guilty of an offence.

Auditors' powers and duties.

(2) Every auditor of a limited partnership has a right of access at all times to the partnership's books, accounts and vouchers and may require from the partnership's general partners and officers such information and explanations as they think necessary for the performance of their duties.

(3) If a limited partnership's auditors are of the opinion that -

- (a) proper accounting records have not been kept,
- (b) the balance sheet or the profit and loss account is not in agreement with the accounting records,
- (c) any report of the general partners is inconsistent with the balance sheet or the profit and loss account, or
- (d) they have failed to obtain all access, information and explanations necessary for their audit, they shall state that fact in their auditors' report.

Return of limited partner's contribution.

24. (1) A limited partner shall not, on dissolution or otherwise, receive from the capital of a limited partnership any payment representing a return of any part of the contributions made by that limited partner to the partnership unless, at the time of and immediately following the making of the payment, the limited partnership is solvent.

(5) Any reference in this section, however expressed, to the receipt by a partner of a payment shall include a reference to the release of any debt owed by him and forming part of the partnership assets (including any obligation on the partner's part to make a contribution to the capital of the partnership); and accordingly any reference in subsection (2) to the making of a repayment by a partner shall be deemed to include a reference to the due performance or discharge by that partner of the debt or obligation.

(6) For the purposes of this section the expression "solvent" means that the limited partnership is able to pay its debts (other than debts described in subparagraphs (ii) to (v) of section 35(d)) in full, as they fall due, out of the partnership assets without recourse to the separate assets of the general partners not contributed to the partnership; and the expression "insolvent" and other cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.

(7) A distribution of any assets of a limited partnership to a limited partner shall be deemed to be a return of contribution for the purposes of subsection (1) to the extent that the distribution reduces the value of that limited partner's share of the partnership's assets, calculated on the basis of the value of the partnership's net

(v) shall not relieve the assignor of any liability arising pursuant to section 5(3), 16(3) or 24(2),

(c) a limited partner, upon the valid and absolute assignment of the whole of the partnership interest held by that limited partner and the subsequent removal of that limited partner from the register of limited partners, shall cease -

(ii) to be entitled to exercise any right or power of a limited partner.

Cases where person shall cease to be general partner.

29. A person shall, subject to the provisions of the partnership agreement, cease to be a general partner of a limited partnership upon the occurrence of any of the following events -
