

ALDERNEY RELIEF POSTAL WORKER

We are looking to recruit a relief postal worker to join our Alderney postal team to cover for periods of absence.

The work involves preparing, collecting and delivering letters and parcels to addresses around the island.

You will need the ability to work quickly with good attention to detail, have an excellent knowledge of the island and a passion for good customer service. You will also need to be physically fit and hold a full driving licence. No experience of postal work is required as full training will be provided.

The ideal candidate will be flexible in their working hours and able to be available at short notice.

The recruitment process involves an aptitude test and a basic police clearance. Candidates with unspent convictions for dishonesty or drug offences will not be eligible for appointment.
