New planning applications are registered on a weekly basis and should be submitted by midday on Wednesdays so that they can be advertised in the Alderney Gazette for that week.

The Gazette, and the notice boards at the Court House and the Victoria Street entrance to St. Anne's Church, are the official places of advertisement.

The weekly plans list is also posted in the lobby of the Island Hall and on the States website.

Please check with the Planning Office if you have any queries.
