

Electoral Roll Data Processing Notice

The Controller and Data Protection Officer processing your information

The States of Alderney are the controller and processor of this data. This information is handled by the States of Alderney Executive team, who are contactable on:

01481 820010 or ceo@alderney.gov.gg

If you have any concerns as to how your data is processed or wish to enquire more about your rights you can contact the Data Protection Officer on:

01481 820049 or dp@alderney.gov.gg

Why your personal information is required and processed

The information is collected as part of your statutory requirements under 'The Government of Alderney (As Amended) Law, 2004'. Failing to provide the personal data required will prevent you from voting in Alderney elections.

Your personal information is lawfully processed under paragraph 5 (exercise of functions by a public authority), paragraph 8 (performing a duty under an enactment) and paragraph 18 (providing explicit consent to the processing) of Schedule 2, Parts I, II and III of the Data Protection Law. Your consent can be withdrawn at any time and your details will be removed from the Electoral Roll, although you will no longer be allowed to vote in Alderney.

Who will have access to your personal information

This information will be held and processed by the States of Alderney Executive team.

The electoral roll is a public document and your name and address will be available for view to the public in the Alderney Island Hall general office.

You have access to your information.

Your information may be accessed by the DPO or civil servants fulfilling rights under the Data Protection laws.

Your information will NOT be transferred to any third parties, unauthorised jurisdictions nor used for direct marketing purposes.

How long is your information kept

Your information is stored securely until we are required to setup a new electoral register or until you decide to remove yourself from the electoral register. The data may then be used for statistical analysis, although your information will be anonymised.

Your Rights

Under 'The Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017' you have a number of rights with regard to your personal data, although not all these will be relevant to this application.

Right to data portability

Right of access

Exception to right of portability or access involving disclosure or another individual's personal data
