Item VI Questions and Reports

The President reported on matters of interest that had occurred over the past month.

It was noted that the Scrutiny Committee had visited the Island and that it was hoped that good communications between the Islands would continue.

The Queens Baton had visited the Island for the first time in 19 years.

Mrs Kerry Hatcher- Gaudion had been appointed as the new States Treasurer, taking over from Mr John Sumner with effect from the 1st May, 2005. Thanks were offered to Mr Sumner for his many years of service.

The President further advised that during the month of July His Royal Highness the Duke of York would be visiting the Island in his capacity as Patron of the Alderney Maritime Trust. Further details would be issued in due course.
