Press Release

Re: D Day Commemorations in Normandy

The President, Stuart Trought and his wife Jane, will be attending a series of events in Basse Normandy to commemorate the D Day landings on the occasion of the 70th anniversary. They will be attending as guests of President le Grand together with other dignitaries from the Channel Islands. Also present will be heads of State from UK, France, USA, and Russia, amongst others.

The events will take place over three days from the 6th to 8th June, in a number of different locations. As well as having the privilege of representing Alderney at these events it will provide a further opportunity to further cement relations with Basse Normandy, and France.
