

Launch of Alderney Tapestry in Bayeux

18 & 19 July 2014

The President was in Bayeux for the weekend when Alderney's section of the Tapestry was launched in Bayeux. The Alderney Tapestry was displayed alongside the original Bayeux Tapestry from 1 July until 9 September at the Musée de la Tapisserie de Bayeux in Bayeux, Normandy, France. Alderney's Tapestry is now back on the island on display in the Alderney Library and a high definition replica remains on display in Bayeux.

The President Mr Stuart Trought signs the Visitor's book with Monsieur Patrick Gomont, Mayor of Bayeux

Members of the Tapestry team including Kate Russell who was the brains behind creating Alderney's Tapestry, at a Vin d'Honneur in Bayeux on Friday 18th July to celebrate the launch of the display of Alderney's Tapestry in Bayeux alongside the original Bayeux Tapestry. Also present are Patrick Gomont, Mayor of Bayeux, Madame Chantal Rovarc'h, Deputy Mayor of Bayeux and Stuart Trought, President of the States of Alderney.

