(viii) the Afghanistan (Restrictive Measures) (Alderney) Ordinance, 2011^g,

(iv) any subordinate legislation under any of the above enactments including, without limitation, regulations under section 49 of the Proceeds of Crime Law, the Disclosure (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2007^h, and the Terrorism and Crime (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2007ⁱ, where such information or documents comprises information required under the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance.

(2) In order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Commission, of information for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the modified EU Regulation and this Ordinance, the Commission (or any person authorised by the Commission for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) may request any person in or resident in Alderney to furnish or produce to it (or, as the case may be, to that authorised person) such information and documents in that person's possession or control as the Commission (or, as the case may be, that authorised person) may require for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the modified EU

^g Alderney Ordinance No. XVI of 2011; amended by Ordinance No. XXI of 2014; and No. VIII of 2016.

^h G.S.I. No. 34 of 2007; amended by G.S.I. No. 50 of 2010; G.S.I. No. 23 of 2011 and G.S.I. No. 50 of 2014.

ⁱ G.S.I. No. 36 of 2007; amended by G.S.I. No. 27 of 2008; G.S.I. No. 49 of 2010; G.S.I. No. 24 of 2011; and G.S.I. No. 51 of 2014.

Regulation or this Ordinance; and a person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(3) No obligation of confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information to which any person may be subject, whether arising by statute, contract or otherwise, is contravened by reason of the disclosure by that person or by any of that person's officers, servants or agents of any information or document in compliance with this section.

(4) Nothing in this section compels the production by an advocate or other legal adviser of a communication subject to legal professional privilege; but an advocate or other legal adviser may be required to give the name and address of any client.

(5) Where a person is convicted of an offence under section 7 for refusing or failing to provide, furnish or produce any information or document, the court may make an order requiring that person, within such period as may be specified in the order, to provide, furnish or produce the information or the document.

(6) The power conferred by this section to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person or, where that person is –

(a) a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate,

- (b) a limited partnership with legal personality, any other person who is a present or past general partner of, or is employed by, the limited partnership, or
- (c) a foundation, any other person who is a present or past foundation official, or is employed by, the foundation, to provide an explanation of any such document.

Monitoring.

- 3. (1) The Commission must -
 - (a) effectively monitor compliance, and
 - (b) take such measures as are necessary to ensure compliance, by payment service providers and intermediary payment service providers with the modified EU Regulation and this Ordinance.

(2) The provisions of sections 25 (power to obtain information and documents), 26 (power of Bailiff to grant warrant), 26A (powers conferred by Bailiff's warrant granted under section 26) and 27 (investigations by inspectors) of the Banking Law shall apply –

- (a) to payment service providers and intermediary payment service providers who send or receive transfers of funds to which the modified EU

Regulation applies as they apply to licensed institutions within the meaning of that Law,

- (b) in relation to such information as the Commission may reasonably require for the purpose of effectively monitoring or ensuring compliance with the requirements of the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance as they apply in relation to such information as the Commission may reasonably require for the performance of its functions under that Law, and
- (c) as if sections 25(5), 25(11) and 27(1) of that Law also allowed the powers referred to in those sections to be exercised if the Commission considers that it is desirable to do so in the interests of effectively monitoring or ensuring compliance with the requirements of the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance, except that section 25(10) (information required for determining whether person is a fit and proper person) of that Law shall not apply.

(3) Sections 28 (investigation of suspected offences) and 29 (power of entry in cases of suspected offences) of the Banking Law shall apply in relation to an offence under this Ordinance as they apply in relation to an offence under section 1 or 21 of that Law.

(4) References in any enactment to section 25, 26, 26A, 27, 28 or 29 of the Banking Law shall be construed as including references to those sections as applied by this section.

Reporting.

4. (1) The Commission must establish effective mechanisms to encourage the reporting to it of breaches of the modified EU Regulation and of this Ordinance.

(2) The mechanisms referred to in subsection (1) must include at least –

- (a) specific procedures for the receipt of reports on breaches and their follow-up,
- (b) appropriate protection for employees (or persons in a comparable position) of payment service providers and intermediary payment service providers who report breaches committed within that entity, including appropriate internal procedures for such persons to report breaches internally,
- (c) clear rules that ensure confidentiality is guaranteed in all cases in relation to the person who reports the breaches committed within the payment service provider or intermediary payment service provider, unless disclosure is required under law in the context of further investigations or subsequent judicial proceedings.

(3) Without prejudice to the reporting requirements specified in the modified EU Regulation, any person must notify the Commission of any breach of any requirement of the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance of which that person becomes aware.

(4) The Commission may require any of the reporting mechanisms referred to in subsections (1) or (2), any notification referred to in subsection (3) or any other report made under any of the reporting requirements specified in the modified EU Regulation to be in the form and manner determined by it.

(5) A notification or report made in good faith under any of the reporting mechanisms referred to in subsections (1) or (2), under subsection (3), or under any of the reporting requirements specified in the modified EU Regulation does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

(6) In subsection (5) "good faith" means that the person making the disclosure –

(a) knows or suspects, or

(b) has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that the person in respect of whom the notification or report is made is engaged in a breach of the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance.

Confidentiality.

5. No information furnished or document produced (including any copy or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance or compliance with a requirement, request or warrant referred to in section 2 or in a notification made under section 4 shall be disclosed except -

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced: provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in the capacity of a servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to possession of that document in that person's own right,
- (b) to any person empowered under a requirement, request or warrant referred to in section 2 or under section 4 to request that it be furnished or produced, or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of Alderney,
- (c) for the purposes of the prevention, detection, investigation or prosecution of money laundering or terrorist financing or any other crime, whether in Alderney or elsewhere,
- (d) for the purposes of ensuring compliance with the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance,
- (e) if the information or document at the time of the disclosure is or has already been made available to the public,

- (f) for the purposes of seeking advice from a qualified person on any matter of law, accountancy or valuation or any other matter requiring the exercise of professional skill, where the disclosure to that person of such information or documentation appears to be necessary to ensure that that person is properly informed as to the matters on which that person's advice is sought,
- (g) in the interests of customers or in the public interest,
- (h) to enable any authority responsible for preventing and combatting money laundering or terrorist financing to carry out its functions or to investigate matters of relevance to its functions, or
- (i) for the purpose of enabling or assisting any supervisory or investigatory authority which appears to exercise, in a place outside the Bailiwick, functions corresponding to any of the functions of the Commission or the Guernsey Border Agency (including the Financial Intelligence Service).

Offences: contravention of modified EU Regulation or Ordinance.

6. (1) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes any provision of the modified EU Regulation or any provision of sections 2 to 4 of this Ordinance is guilty of an offence.

(2) A person who without reasonable excuse discloses any information or document, or who without reasonable excuse causes or permits the disclosure of any information or document, in contravention of section 5 of this Ordinance is guilty of an offence.

Offences: obstruction and false information etc.

7. (1) A person who in purported compliance with any provision of, or requirement under, the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance -

- (a) makes a statement which that person knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,
- (b) recklessly makes a statement, dishonestly or otherwise, which is false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,
- (c) produces or furnishes or causes or permits to be produced or furnished any information or document which that person knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular, or
- (d) recklessly produces or furnishes or recklessly causes or permits to be produced or furnished, dishonestly or otherwise, any information or document which is false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular, is guilty of an offence.

(2) A person who with intent to evade any provision of, or requirement under, the modified EU Regulation or this Ordinance destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document is guilty of an offence.

(3) A person who without reasonable excuse, proof of which lies on that person, obstructs or fails to give all reasonable assistance to any person in the exercise or purported exercise of a function referred to in section 2 or under, or applied by, section 3 is guilty of an offence.

(4) A person who, without reasonable excuse, proof of which lies on that person, refuses or fails to comply with any requirement, request or warrant to provide information or documents referred to in section 2 or under, or applied by, section 3 is guilty of an offence.

Penalties.

8. (1) A person guilty of an offence under section 6(1) or 7 of this Ordinance is liable –

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to a fine, or to both,
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale of fines, or to both.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under section 6(2) of this Ordinance is liable –

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or to both,
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale of fines, or to both.

(3) The penalties stipulated by this Ordinance are applicable notwithstanding the provisions of section 13 of the Government of Alderney Law, 2004^j.

Criminal liability of directors etc.

9. (1) Where an offence under this Ordinance is committed by a body corporate, limited partnership with legal personality or foundation and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of –

- (a) in the case of a body corporate, any director, controller, manager, secretary or other similar officer,
- (b) in the case of a limited partnership with legal personality, any general partner,
- (c) in the case of a foundation, any foundation official, or ^j Order in Council No. III of 2005; as amended by No. XXII of 2010. There are other amendments not relevant to this enactment.

- (d) any person purporting to act in any capacity described in paragraphs (a) to (c), that person as well as the body corporate, limited partnership or foundation is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies to a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director.

- (3) In this section and in section 2(6) -

"body corporate" means a body of persons, of whatever description, incorporated with or without limited liability in any part of the world,

"foundation" means -

- (a) a foundation created under the Foundations (Guernsey) Law, 2012^k, or
- (b) an equivalent or similar body created or established under the law of another jurisdiction (however named),

"foundation official" means -

^k Order in Council No. I of 2013; amended by Ordinance No. IX of 2016.

- (a) in relation to a foundation created under the Foundations (Guernsey) Law, 2012, a foundation official within the meaning of that Law, and
- (b) in relation to an equivalent or similar body created or established under the law of another jurisdiction, a person with functions corresponding to those of a foundation official described in paragraph (a) of this definition, and

"general partner" means –

- (a) in relation to a limited partnership falling within paragraph (a) of the definition in this section of "limited partnership", a general partner within the meaning of the Limited Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 1995¹, and
- (b) in relation to a limited partnership falling within paragraph (b) of the definition in this section of "limited partnership", a person whose liability for, and functions in relation to, the partnership correspond to that of a general partner described in paragraph (a) of this definition.

(4) In this section and in section 10 "limited partnership" means -

¹ Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXVI, p. 264; amended by Vol. XXXVI, p. 571; Order in Council No. IV of 2001; No. X of 2007; No. VIII of 2008; Ordinance No. XXXIII of 2003; No. IX of 2016; G.S.I. No. 89 of 2008; and G.S.I. N0. 51 of 2016.

- (a) an arrangement which is registered as a limited partnership, and in respect of which there is a valid certificate of registration, under the Limited Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 1995, or
- (b) an arrangement entered into under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Guernsey between two or more persons, under which-
 - (i) one or more of them is, or are jointly and severally, liable without limitation for all debts and obligations to third parties incurred pursuant to the arrangement, and
 - (ii) the others have, by whatever means, contributed or agreed to contribute specified amounts pursuant to the arrangement and are not liable for those debts and obligations (unless they participate in controlling the business or are otherwise subjected to a greater liability by those laws in specified circumstances) beyond the amount contributed or agreed to be contributed, whether with or without legal personality.

Criminal proceedings against unincorporated bodies.

10. (1) Where an offence under this Ordinance is committed by an unincorporated body and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of -

- (a) in the case of a partnership (not being a limited partnership with legal personality or a limited liability partnership), any partner,
- (b) in the case of any other unincorporated body, any officer of that body who is bound to fulfil any duty of which the offence is a breach or, if there is no such officer, any member of the committee or other similar governing body, or
- (c) any person purporting to act in any capacity described in paragraph (a) or (b), that person as well as the unincorporated body is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where an offence under this Ordinance is alleged to have been committed by an unincorporated body, proceedings for the offence must, without prejudice to subsection (1), be brought in the name of the body and not in the name of any of its members.

(3) A fine imposed on an unincorporated body on its conviction for an offence under this Ordinance must be paid from the funds of the body.

(4) In this section "limited liability partnership" means -

- (a) a limited liability partnership formed in Guernsey under the Limited Liability Partnerships (Guernsey) Law, 2013^m, or
- (b) an entity formed under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Guernsey, being an entity corresponding to a limited liability partnership described in paragraph (a).

Power for Commission to make rules, instructions and guidance.

11. (1) The Commission may make rules, instructions and guidance for the purposes of this Ordinance and the modified EU Regulation.

(2) Any court shall take the rules, instructions and guidance into account in determining whether or not any person has complied with this Ordinance and the modified EU Regulation.

Rules, instructions and guidance.

12. (1) Any, rules, instructions or guidance under this Ordinance -

- (a) may be amended or repealed by subsequent rules, instructions or guidance, as the case may be, and
- (b) may contain consequential, incidental, supplemental and transitional provisions.

(2) Any power conferred by this Ordinance to make rules,

^m Order in Council No. VI of 2014; amended by Ordinance No. XII of 2015; and No. IX of 2016.

instructions or guidance may be exercised -

- (a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases, and
- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised -
 - (i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),
 - (ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes, and
 - (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any conditions specified in the Regulations, order, rules, instructions or guidance.
