

A weekend of fun and enjoyment for all the family

Saturday 6th May
Sunday 7th May
Monday 8th May

SATURDAY 6th MAY

The Coronation Service will take place at Westminster Abbey and be broadcast on television at 11.00, so relax at home to watch this historic occasion. Alternately, if you'd like to be a bit more involved why not watch it at the real CORONATION INN in the High Street. History tells us that Gus Rihou was the then landlord of the premises but an increased rent made him turn his living room into a pub in 1953, the year of the Queen's Coronation. He also had a small black and white television and many folk piled in to watch the occasion with one customer suggesting the new pub should be called The Coronation Inn. Refreshments will be served courtesy of the Corrie. Other island establishments will also be screening the event including the Braye Beach who will also serve their special Coronation afternoon teas - Friday to Monday 2.30 to 5.00.

1.00 CANNON SALUTE - At Fort Albert: (subject to weather)

A special one-gun salute to His Majesty King Charles III. Take a stroll up to the fort to see the King's gun. King from William Tate, President of the Island Council, will give a 'Coronation Chicken Sandwich' and a cuppa from PJ's on the food stall. (Disabled parking only at the fort - main parking area at bottom of lane)

CANCELLED DUE TO POOR WEATHER. WILLIAM TATE
WILL GIVE HIS MESSAGE AT THE ISLAND HALL AT 2.15

2.15 CORONATION STREET PARTY & CONCERT - At Island Hall

A family fun event with all the usual spread of sandwiches and cakes prepared and served by the senior pupils of St Anne's School, during which afternoon entertainment will be The Island Band, Wine & Song Choir, The Akafellas and the Bee Minors Junior Choir along with a special King's display from the junior KFA Pommerettes. Entrance FREE (This event will move to the Island Hall if bad weather).

7.30 THE KING & QUEEN'S 'MASK'-QURADE PARTY At the Georgian House:

Enjoy a superb 3-course meal and an evening of fun and some right Royal entertainment with music that includes the King's official party play list. 'Royal' Masks will be provided on your arrival along with a special King's cocktail which will seriously get you into party mode. Black Tie or dress to kill.
