

Weapons Import / Export Data Processing Notice

The Controller and Data Protection Officer processing your information

The States of Alderney are the controller and processor of this data. This information is handled by the States of Alderney Executive team, who are contactable on:

01481 820010 or ceo@alderney.gov.gg

If you have any concerns as to how your data is processed or wish to enquire more about your rights you can contact the Data Protection Officer on:

01481 820049 or dp@alderney.gov.gg

Why your personal information is required and processed

The information is collected as part of your statutory requirements under 'Import and Export (Control) Alderney Law, 1946'. Failing to provide the personal data required could create an offence, which could result in legal action with possible fines or imprisonment.

Your personal information is lawfully processed under paragraph 3 (protect the vital interests of the data subject or any other individual), paragraph 5 (exercise of functions by a public authority), paragraph 8 (performing a duty under an enactment) and paragraph 13 (administration of justice or the exercise of any function of the States) of Schedule 2, Parts I and II of the Data Protection Law. The processing is also necessary for law enforcement.

Who will have access to your personal information

This information will be held and processed by the States of Alderney Executive team.

Your information will be given to the Guernsey Border Agency.

You have access to your information, under the Right of Access.

Your information may be accessed by the DPO or civil servants fulfilling your rights under the Data Protection laws.

Your information will NOT be transferred to any third parties, unauthorised jurisdictions nor used for direct marketing purposes.

How long is your information kept

Your information is stored securely for a minimum of seven years after your weapons have been imported or exported, which may be extended if any legal reasons occur. The data may then be used for statistical analysis, although your information will be anonymised.

Your Rights

Under 'The Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017' you have a number of rights with regard to your personal data, although not all these will be relevant to this application.

Right to data portability

Right of access

Exception to right of portability or access involving disclosure or another individual's personal data

Right to object to processing for direct marketing purposes, on grounds of public interest or for historical or scientific purposes

Right to rectification

Right to erasure

Right to restriction of processing

Right to be notified of rectification, erasure and restrictions

Right not to be subject to decisions based on automated processing

Right to make a complaint to the Data Protection Officer and failing this to the supervisory authority (The Office of the Data Protection Commissioner).